THE STEEL STRIKE

By MARY HEATON VORSE.

(Author of "The Prestons," etc., etc.)

This week the commissary stores are being opened in all the steel towns. For six weeks the strikers had nothing. They have been living on their savings; some who have had no savings, have existed from hand to mouth, picking up a chance bit of work here and there and being helped out by their friends.

The first strike relief which will have been given will be the groceries given out twice a week from the commissary stores. Not everyone can have these groceries. They are for those who are starving or on the edge of want, for it would be unthinkable at this state of organized labor that anyone should be forced to scab by hunger.

You do not need much imagination to understand what endurance it has taken on the part of the rank and file to stay out on strike for six weeks without strike benefit or relief. It is going to take even more endurance from now on, when the narrow line will have to be drawn between those actually in want and those nearly in want.

Yesterday, I saw how that was being done. When a striker applies for relief, one of the strike committee goes around to talk the matter over with the family. I went out in Pittsburgh with a Polish fellow-worker who was going out to make such visits of investigation.

We had some difficulty in finding the house where the strikers live. We went down back alleys, past refuse dumps that seemed as venerable as the dilapidated meeting house on the corner. Like everything else in this neighborhood, it was falling to pieces. The paint had scaled from its pillars, but it spoke of a former day before all of the mild red brick of the houses had been defiled with the grime soot, and when the well-to-do, comfortable families lived a family in a house, instead of a family in a room.

All America has heard how richly the steel workers have been paid. They have heard how their wives buy fur coats, and how they go to work in their cars. There have been among the highly skilled some who have made good money. The average man is no better off than he ever was. He lives as he always did, in a foul and crowded slum in the cities where his children from one year's end to another never see a green blade of grass, or in bleak monotonous houses in the country, plastered to hillsides, where every green thing is blackened by the smoke of the mills. What small share he has had in the colossal profits which have been made by steel has been wiped off the slate by the cost of living. For under our system of profits nothing but profits matters.

We finally found the house. To go in, we had to bend down because laundry was hanging in the front hall. We went into a back yard, bricked over and littered with debris. The only sweet thing on which the eye could rest were the children playing in the yard. It was separate from the other yards by high blackened palings. It was as cheerful as a well. But the children played there.

The room we went into was clean, but as bleak as the yard. On either side of the stove were two chairs without backs. There was a table, a mechanical cradle rocked a baby to and fro—tick, tack—tick, tack, in a staccato rhythm. There were the two chairs in the room, and that was all, except white curtains at the window—patched and darned—but, in spite of the all invading grime, white. The woman called her husband from the inner room. This room, where they slept and the four children with them, was black as a cellar, with much less ventilation.

For a while they talked together in Polish, and I made friends with the children. The conversation between the member of the strike committee and the strikers was very earnest. I don't think they ever smiled. But all through it ran the rippling laughter of the children. These people had brought with them such sound, good blood, that their children even in these conditions were gay and bonny and full of laughter. They were three, four and five years old, and there was the baby of eleven months.

Presently the talk came to an end. They had decided.

"They have decided," said my guide, "that they can wait three weeks more before they come to the commissary."

They had nothing, and they could wait three weeks more! In some houses you will go to, you can find the evidence of the higher wages. A comfortable chair; a sewing machine; a better type of stove, but here there was no sign of anything of that kind. Bare walls and emptiness, that was all. Babies coming in such rapid succession had eaten up all this man could earn. Then I realized that if the strike is being won by the individual courage of the men, it is also being won by the endurance of women. Women like this — young mothers, burdened down by the care of their young children. Women who have almost no diversion, who live isolated by poverty from all that is beautiful in life, whose eyes never rest on anything fair except the faces of their own children. There are hundreds of women, and thousands of them, like this one, scattered through the steel towns, who have made up their minds that they can hold out a little longer—another week—two weeks more. And if women were not willing to endure like this, strikes couldn't be won.

Yet it is a terrible thing to think that this endurance must be. Life is hard enough under ordinary conditions for the steel workers' wives. They live in joyless towns, their men never had a chance to get really rested; there is always a new baby, and most of them remain forever strangers for they never have time or opportunity to learn English. Lately the Senators have talked about Americanizing the foreign workers. They will have to humanize the steel industry first. They will have to teach such men as Judge Gary the elementary things concerning Americanism.

In times of strike, terror and suspense are added to the lives of the women. Fear of want is their constant companion. How do they stick it out? How can they have such endurance and fortitude? In every town the men are constantly being arrested. The shadow of the constabulary is forever over the strikers. The bosses make house to house canvasses and play upon the fears and credulity of the women, and yet you find them—like the mother of the laughing children—ready to wait two or three weeks more so that someone needier than herself would have first chance at commissary stores. Holding on in the face of sneering threats, holding on with want just around the corner; holding on with hunger waiting in ambush. Holding on in spite of the appealing hands of children plucking forever at their skirts, reminding them that it is they in the last analysis who are going to suffer.

You see sights every day in the steel towns that would break your heart. I went up one of Homestead's filthy alleys where man is the only thing not vile that you see, where the wide kind faces of a Slovak or Croatian woman shines out at you from the squalor—wide, calm looking women with the tranquil eyes of those who look over the wide spaces of the country, the brown of sun and wind still in their cheeks.

As I walked past, one of these women snatched a tow-headed baby from the ground and rocked it back and forth, laughing, swaying with it that cradling gesture which is part of a mother's instinct. There was something very sweet and everlastingly good about that woman. She had left the village where she was born to follow her man to this country, and here she was in a Homestead alley, singing in Croatian to the tow-headed baby so that the men playing cards nearby smiled up at her. Beside her stretched out on a frame was a clean, white curtain. There is a whole story of aspiration in the curtains that the mill workers' wives keep washed and white. It is the fashion among them to have this one little luxury. These curtains fluttering out of windows say to everybody who chooses to interpret that these women want cleanliness and beauty so deeply, that they will pay in terms of fatigue and struggle to achieve a symbol of it.

The strike is about things like this. It is about that woman and the tow-headed baby. It is about the children that laughed in the sunless courtyard. For strikes are not abstract things, they are about life. You follow wages, hours, working conditions, and they will always lead you to one place, they will lead you back to a home and a woman and a child waiting in it. They lead you back to the things you want for that child, a place to play in now, and a better world to work in when he grows up.

So the fight for freedom goes on, builded on countless acts of sacrifice. Not even a steel corporation can kill the gift which these people have brought to this country, though buried in the mean streets are the bright treasures of hopes the hundreds of thousands of men and women had with them when they came. They all came seeking freedom and opportunity. The savage thunder of the mills deafened them, and the darkness of the mines has blinded them, but only for a while, and then instead of seeking for freedom they fight for it. You can check them, but you cannot stop them.

The steel strike is one of the decisive labor battles of history. It does not concern merely the mill workers and their wives; it concerns all of organized labor. No one can turn upon it indifferent eyes, whoever he may be or whatever his trade.

The strikers are on the firing line, but it takes more than combat troops to win a great war. Wars are won through a whole country standing behind the men under fire. That is the business of all of us. It is the business of everyone of us to see that the least of these sacrifices shall not have been made in vain.

DETROIT BUILDING TRADES.

The following resolution was adopted at a regular meeting of the Detroit Building Trades Council, held on Friday, Nov. 7, 1919, 8 o'clock, p. m.

Whereas, The DuPont Engineering Company, subsidiary of the I. E. DuPont De Nemours Powder Company, of Wilmington, Delaware, has now engaged itself in Building Construction, in the State of Michigan and elsewhere, and

Whereas, This company are erecting these buildings under the so-called open-shop policy, where some trades are union and others non-union, and

Whereas, Representatives of the Detroit Building Trades Council, have negotiated with local officials of the DuPont Engineering Company, to have their work erected under strictly union conditions, and

Whereas, After fully three months of negotiation, these efforts have proved futile, said company refusing to accede to the wishes of our Council, and

Whereas, Certain International officers of the Building Trades have negotiated with Local and Headquarter officials of the DuPont Engineering Company, also failing in their efforts to attain the desired conditions, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Detroit Building Trades Council, with the consent of the International Union Officers, present at this meeting of Nov. 7, 1919, do hereby declare the DuPont Engineering Company, Construction Department, on the unfair list of building trades employers throughout the United States and Canada, and be it further

Resolved, That the Detroit Building Trades Council in company with International Union Officers present, hereby call upon officials of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor, to also declare the DuPont Engineering Company, unfair to organized labor, in the building industry, throughout the United States and Canada, and be it further

Resolved, That we call upon officials of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor to support us in this fight, by immediately setting in motion, the necessary machinery to make this firm effectively unfair, and be it further

Resolved, That the Detroit Building Trades Council with International Union Officers, now present, call upon officials of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor, also International Officers of the various affiliated unions to attend a Special meeting of said Council to be held in the City of Detroit, on Friday, Nov. 14, 1919, at 10 o'clock a. m. Signed by

Committee on Resolutions:

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Local Union No. 15 of Jersey City, Hudson County, wishes to notify all the Brothers, that a strike is on against the Public Service Corporation and requests all brothers to stay away from our jurisdiction.

Fraternally,

W. R. Burke,

A. Baxter,

Committee.

L. U. No. 15.

Owing to difficulty in our jurisdiction in having the constitutional number of members unemployed, it is necessary to place in effect Article 14, Section 8 of the Constitution.

Fraternally yours,

Earl Holman, Rec. Secy.

Local Union No. 695.

Owing to difficulty in our jurisdiction we have found it necessary to place in force Article 8, Section 14 of the Constitution.

H. Haggstrom, Secy.

L. U. No. 20, New York.

Owing to difficulties in our jurisdiction, it has been necessary that we place in force Article 14, Section 8 of the Constitution.

Fred Asken, Rec. Secy.

L. U. 76. Tacoma, Wash.

Owing to difficulty in our jurisdiction, it has become necessary to enforce provisions of Article 14, Section 8 of the Constitution.

(Signed) A. H. Feely, E. A.

L. U. 378, San Francisco, Cal.

For the information of all members we desire to inform them that the strike against the Willys-Overland Company is still on, and the products of that concern are considered unfair to our Local. Also it has been necessary to fine Louis Herman, Cash Johns, Amos Barnes and Preston Hogal for violation of their obligation by working unfair in our jurisdiction.

G. O. Tucker,

Rec. Secy., L. U. 129.

Anyone knowing the address of R. T. Mulligan, Card No. 92639, will oblige by sending same to E. A. Woodworth.

Business Agent.

Labor Temple, Mobile, Ala.

Local Union No. 810.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of John Mongon, please write address below. Was last heard from in Winnipeg, Canada.

Mrs. John Mangon,

22 Culton Ave.

Newark, N. Y.

Wayne Co.

Would like to have Slat's Burke communicate with O. F. McMurvin, 901 W. 5th St., Des Moines, Iowa.

If W. J. Stevens (Little Steve) of Richmond, Indiana, or Jim Childress who worked in Nashville, Tenn., in the spring of 1918, sees this, please write.

W. L. Pickens,

1418 Rush Ave.,

Houston, Texas.

Owing to difficulty in our territory, it will be necessary to place in force Article 14 Section 8.

E. A. Reynolds,

L. U. 386, New York Cit.

The following two members of Local 60 have had their cards revoked and an assessment of $200.00 and amount equal to dues and assessment of Local No. 60 placed against them. C. H. Bunker, card No. 343195, and Edwin Klaus card No. 343145, kindly publish their names under the head of special notice as these members have gone to work for firms declared in our difficulty.

With best wishes, I am

Fraternally yours,

Ben. J. Crowther,

Fin. Sec.

Desire to inform the Brotherhood that the following members, Harry A. Burg, Card No. 108275, George E. Jones, card No. 108272, A. C. Jenkins, card No. 108167 and A. C. Brown, have been expelled for working unfair in the jurisdiction of our local union.

W. H. Dawson,

Rec. Sec'y.

Local Union 27, Baltimore, Md.

This is to notify all members that Local 44 of Ponca City, Oklahoma has a number of employers in their jurisdiction who are trying to escape doing business with the local union. This is a baby local union, having just been installed, but was born kicking and is shouting to beat the band, and we will make a success if the brothers from other territories will let us alone for a little while, giving us a chance to make conditions with our employers, so that we may have union shops and good conditions to offer them when they do come to us in the future. We are not enforcing any prohibition on cards, but have as many men as we can take care of at this time, and simply ask that members with traveling cards give our territory a wide berth for the time being. We will notify through the Worker of settlement when reached, and trust that it will be as good as any in the country. O. J. Lee, Secretary 444.

EDITORIAL

RAILROAD SITUATION Much speculation is indulged in by STOP! LOOK! LISTEN! everyone with any cause to make guesses on it as to what will develop in the Railroad situation, and it is of especial interest to the Workers to consider what might happen in case of congress passing special Legislation effecting the rights of the Workers to organize or strike.

We do not believe that Congress knowing the present unsettled and critical stage of the general Industrial situation will pass the Cummings Bill with the drastic anti-strike amendments. Or any special legislation taking away from the workers the unquestionable right to cease work, either as individuals or as a body, as a last resort, in order to force recognition of just grievances or demands.

We are unwilling to believe that any body of men, selected presumably because of their being far above the average in intelligence could be so short sighted. So utterly out of step with the spirit of the Democracy they so lately lauded as the ideal of America with eloquence of word and jesture that would put to shame Cicero and all his contemporaries. And aside from the charge of inconsistency, it would involve a plea of guilty to the charge of committing the most monumental act of pure pig headed dampfoolishness calculated to destroy the very structure in which they have their being, the government they have sworn to uphold.

Surely our Solons know that the passage of a measure telling the American workman that he can no longer use the strategic measure of a strike, will be an open and urgent invitation to him to employ the strike, his most effective weapon of last resort, in protest before the measure becomes a law by virtue of the president's signature.

Surely they are aware that such action would give the greatest possible measure of aid and comfort, to every enemy of American Government and its institutions, not only within the confines of the boundaries of the United States but throughout the world.

Surely none amongst them are so blind as to be unable to see that such an action would be more effective than all the orators of soap box variety, all the literature, spreading propaganda, and all of the money sent by Russia or other sources of Bolsheviki, as a recruiting agency for those who flaunt the red flag of carnage and inverted despotism in opposition to our much loved and dearly defended stars and stripes.

It is high time that the political Powers-that-Be rest from their strenuous game of political Battledore and shuttlecock with, so vital a necessity as, the railroads as their plaything, and check the inundation of oratory long enough to devote a few thoughts to the future pregnant with possibilities beside some of which the burning of Rome would appear as the glow of a firefly compared to the noonday sun. One thing seems, in a reasonable measure, agreed that the railroads will be returned to private ownership about January first. And if this happens, our government must not hand back the men who make them run and kept them running, hog-tied and shackled, by any pernicious, piecrust law that is only made to be broken.

We all know of the suddenly great Lever Act, that was imposed on the miners situation, and commend the good sense and patriotism of the miners officials in recognizing the majesty of the government whether misapplied or not. But the Lever Act was a war-time measure the same as the selective draft and other necessary unusual and restrictive measures. But the Lever Act dies with the war in company with other emergency war necessary measures. Restrict our rights, our heat, our food, our clothing and anything else so long as it seems necessary in defending our country and the Democracy of the peoples, and we say amen. But after having served and endured in full measure that Democracy might live, deny that same freedom and democracy to its very apostles and defenders and the result cannot fail to be chaos.

The Machinists' organization are even now voting to empower their International officials to call a strike in case of anti-strike legislation being passed by congress. The Transportation Brotherhoods not having their demands adjusted as yet are openly against any attempt by congress to pass such restrictive laws, and all other organizations will without doubt take the passage of such a law as a signal to use the weapon that law deprives them of in protest against the signing that makes it law.

The necessity of guarding more closely than ever your Locals and Councils must be apparent to all. Organize and keep on organizing until not a man is left that will be the creature of the employers if the crisis comes.

CHANGED SPIRIT. From the day the United States entered the world war until the signing of the Armistice, there was displayed by practically all citizens a true American spirit. No sacrifice was too great, no duty too exacting. Our nation lived in an atmosphere of co-operation. Employers and employees recognized the right of the other and put aside individual selfishness for the good of the nation.

What a change has taken place; instead of being willing to continue sane industrial relations, many employers and some employees apparently desire to precipitate an industrial war. Just why such a situation would be considered desirable, no one cares to explain, thus leaving the great mass of people speculating as to the reasons why chaos is preferable to peace and orderly management.

Even some of our national law makers have seemingly lost their heads and favor anti-strike legislation to shackle the workers to their jobs regardless of how deplorable the conditions of employment may be.

The great majority of people thought the war would establish sympathetic interest for one another; that a great conscientious awakening would occur and we as a nation would set an example of democracy that the world would hasten to follow and it is to be regretted that many employers and a substantial number of workers failed to absorb the spirit that the gallant kahki clad boys carried to France. God forbid that the victory is for naught.

ARMISTICE DAY OUTRAGE. The cowardly murder at Centralia, Wash., of four world war veterans and the wounding of several others was a most dastardly act, with few parallels in our history. If the time has come when our citizens cannot follow Old Glory in a peacable parade without being targets for anarchy's bullets, it is indeed time to set about to correct conditions.

Editor:

Seems that the old boys can not stay away long for who should we see and hear last Friday night, but Brother Ed. Merrit who came all the way from Detroit to pay us a visit.

Brother Buck Moore has left us again, but although gone, Buck you are not forgotten and we know that you will soon return.

Our Business Agent is pretty busy of late and has to keep his eyes open for Curley Robinson is hot on his trail getting back into town late one night unbeknown to the Business Agent.

Brother Ed. Arnold is again at work although he says he has only one leg. No 2 has given the Kinloch Telephone fifteen days (15) to settle wage disputes and all concerned hope that it will be done in that length of time.

Press Secretary mentioned some time ago that some one pinned a rose on the forehead of the Business Agent and since that time have learned where the rose came from, but he being a pretty good fellow will not say any more, as the Press Secretary very nearly got one off the same bush lately.

Any of the Brothers that want to see and have a good dance, hit St. Louis this month for we sure are going to have a dandy and Brother Frank Kauffman who is in Chicago promises some startling things and when Frank promises—nuff sed.

Bill Howell,

We the members of Local No. 11 of Paterson, N. J., have presented an agreement to the Public Service Electric Company of Paterson, N. J. A Committee of five brothers of Local No. 11 had a conference of seven hours with the officials of the Public Service Electric Co., of Paterson, N. J. The linemen and brothers of Local No. 11 have made a demand of 44 hours per week at the rate of 87½ cents per hour and double time for overtime and full time for stormy weather. The committee of five brothers after having a conference of seven hours with the Public Service Electric Co., have failed to come to any agreement in regards to their demand and the Public Service Co., have failed to come to any agreement in regards to their demand and the Public Service Co., have failed to recognize Local No. 11 and the linemen are out on strike. The linemen intend to wait until further reply from the Officials of Public Service Electric Co., Local No. 11 have requested all linemen to keep away from Paterson as they are out on strike.

Editor:

Pueblo Local No. 12 is progressing fine in spite of the Steel Strike which has throwed almost 200 of our members out of work, and we have done wonderfully well considering that our treasury was short. We wish to thank all the brothers and Locals that have assisted us so generously and hope to be able to repay them in some future time.

A great majority of the boys have drifted to other locals and the most of them have good jobs. We failed to get our little piece in the October number, but about that time we had too much to look after.

Brother Carlson and Clee returned from the convention in good spirits and said that they had a good education in running a convention and that the next time they would be ready for business.

Would like to have all the secretaries in the Steel strike districts write us personally and give an exact account of what is going on, as it will be of great interest to our brothers who are out in the strike. Brothers I mean you boys of the Eastern locals think it over, be reasonable. You got everything you wanted at the convention and don't you think you should allow us boys in the West to have the next convention. It will not hurt you much and it might do the Western coast boys a great deal of good. We are pleading to you now. Let's have the next convention in Portland, and we will be square. You know that it has been many a year since you crossed the mountains, so think it over. Local No. 12 has taken the vote on amendments of the last convention sent out by the International and suppose the rest have done so. Meet us in Portland next year and we will talk it over.

Well Brothers from Boston, where are you? We are like the Press Secretary from St. Louis, all swelled up. You are some slinger. Missed October. Were you sick? This is a dry climate out here, but we understand that Boston and St. Louis will wet your whistle for two bits.

Perhaps the backfiring business was caught in the Steam Boiler. Well Old Top we are with you anyway. Come again. By the way get into politics. It is great. Some of our boys did in this town. Labor vote was 5 to 1 and what do you think they got elected? I guess not. Beat by the other side almost double. Dam good stickers these fellows. We are going to get out an Injunction against the next election and by the way Brothers better get some scheme to handle strike funds, as the Bolsheviks have started putting stickers on bank accounts.

It is sure hell for the coal miners to defy the government in winter time. Horrible but Gary can defy government, Congress and all the Steel workers and I wont say any more. Leave the rest to Gompers and Lewis.

Say fellows, Article 14, Section 8 was put into effect here and published in October Worker, but we forgot to put in the number of the local and place. Anyway you have it now.

Boys if you float through here and are broke, don't think that you will starve. Show the ticket and we will entertain you a few days until you see the sights.

Pull for Portland.

Yours for the Union Label,

J. L. Seay,

Press Secretary.

I understood and was lead to believe that the New Orleans Convention went off without a kick and that everything was very satisfactory to the delegates that assembled and that there was no divided house, as in former conventions. But some clauses on propositions sent out in the referendum to be incorporated in the new constitution tells quite a different tale for instance to knock out the referendum that is a dandy. The convention must of have been a lopsided affair or the delegates must have been drunk or crazy to propose a proposition of such a reactionary character and let it go by without a protest. What do you suppose that people in all civilized countries have been fighting for for centuries and are still at it, but for the Initiative and Referendum and as the rank and file in the I. B. E. W., do not have the Initiative, but want it and should and will have it.

Some four or five hundred delegates are trying to legislate the referendum from the majority. Now! Oh think I should like to belong to an organization that a few men or delegates have the sole power to say what the rank and file shall and shall not do. Should said delegates not act any wiser than those who shoved the above referred amendments through? Brothers this is not progress, but is on the highway straight down to hell.

Brothers you can readily see for yourselves what a disadvantage the rank and file would be at when you have no say so nor comeback, accept or perish would be the motto. Look at the last two strikes what are Steel Workers getting? They are getting it where the chicken got the axe and the coal miners, what are they going to get? Some of the same medicine only in a partial different way. Oh, yes, delegate your livelihood in the hands of a few hired delegates and you will go kerflop in the above mentioned place.

It is as bad as taxation without representation. I for one do not want to stand for anything of the sort. What have the people been fighting for the franchise for years for? But for representation so that they can have their say on who will use the whip. While I will admit that as yet the vast majority of working men and working women do not know how to use their franchise for their own or their fellow workers interests. It is to be hoped that their class ignorance will eventually be dissipated through sad experience in being hood winked by the Capitalistic press and led to the slaughter like swine. There is still hope as the rising generation is not as ignorant or as prejudiced as the majority of the old school. The young are not going to follow in the footsteps of their fathers, as blindly as the preceding generations have done. Give us the referendum also the Initiative and we will work out our own salvation.

The working man and working women are progressing slowly it is true, but why try to cut off what little liberty that we now enjoy. Should the trade unions curtail what liberty the membership now enjoy?

L. U. NO. 15, JERSEY CITY, N. J.

Editor:

Will you kindly publish the following statement in your Worker?

The Linemen and Operators of the Public Service Electric Company forced out on strike about a month ago because of the unfair action of the company in taking advantage of the time asked for to consider the question of advanced wages and working conditions by the members of our organization, and getting ready to house strike breakers in our places thereby forcing our men as a matter of protection to go on strike.

Since then the organizations affiliated without Brotherhood in Trenton, Paterson and Newark have taken similar action, and the Public Service Co. are using the Jersey City base ball park to break in non-union men to take our places and try to break this strike.

This don't speak very well of the owners of the base ball park of Jersey City and it will be our purpose to at least draw to the attention of all organized workers in this as well as all the nearby cities the action taken by these owners so that when another season rolls around the organized mechanics who largely patronize this park will show by their absence that they will not countenance action of this kind being taken against organized labor for the sake of the monetary consideration that may be involved.

So far as recruiting and breaking in these strike breakers is concerned that in itself is not causing us any great worry, but we at least wish to guard the public against inexperienced men of this caliber trying to do the work on the High Tension wires and cables throughout the city which in normal times takes skilled mechanics who are thoroughly familiar with conditions in and around the city to properly handle and take care of.

We trust that your paper will publish the above facts as we at all times have had the interest of the community at heart and it may at the same time awake the owners of the park to the fact that we will not countenance the base ball park being used as a recruiting school for strike breakers who are a menace to the lives of the citizens of the city.

Thanking you in advance, I am,

Business Agent of Local 15 J. C.

Editor:

Well Mr. Editor it has been some time since No. 23 has had any news for the Brothers, but will try and let them know we are still in the ring and going ahead every day. We have a membership of about three hundred at this time and am still picking them up. Will soon have the Telephone Company one hundred per cent and do not intend to let them get away with anything like the past, as the boys have all got their fighting blood hot and are ready for the firing line.

At this time I have started to organize the Telephone Operators again and nope to have good success in the near future as far as I can see. Well Mr. Editor as I am a very poor press secretary, will close with a word of good cheer for the I. B. E. W. as a whole, I am

Fraternally yours,

Editor:

Well Brothers, as you don't hear from No. 27 very often, you may think we are dead, but far from such, as we are living and wide awake and still doing business in Old Town Bank Hall. Yes Brothers we have got old Mother Bell wobbling at her knees. The splicers and helpers in the city are 100 per cent and also the linemen about 70 per cent and expect with J. E. Rea as Business Agent to make all of Mother Bell 100 per cent in a short time. Well Brothers everybody in No. 27 is working at this time. About thirty brothers came off of the sparrows Point job at Sparrows Point, Md., with the steel workers and for better working conditions in general they were out only two days and by the good work of the Business Agent they landed a job with Brother Cameron of the Iron Workers at $1.00 per hour and car fare. Some difference in the scale of wages. At the Point they received 60 cents per hour and pay your own car fare. Yes Brothers, the boys at the Bell just got a jump from 68 to 72 cents per hour.

Brothers, I almost forgot to tell you of the good news from Camp Holabird, Camp Meade and a couple of the other camps around Balto. They just got a raise from 75 to 92½ cents per hour and traveling time, so Brothers you know by this letter we have not been asleep. Yes we are on the job and on the job to stay. Yes we are on the job and on it every day.

Yours fraternally,

C. J., Acting Press Secy.

As I failed to send a copy to the last Journal for publication, will try and make up for same. Meantime, I was able to get a list of the so-called scabs that did the rat act while we were on strike with the Telephone Companies in Cleveland. They are as follows: City Foreman, Whear McMan; Herman Elm, Bill Elm, Linemen, Ed. Thomson, Tom Hirsch, Gy. Lenord, Walter Holmes, Bill Shultz, Tom Murray, Charlie Welty, Tom Reilly and a skunk by the name of Tall. I guess he was ashamed to tell his first name. Outside of these they had some deported finks from other cities and the Brothers were unable to find out said names. Things are about the same in and around the fourth city. Everyone working that feels like doing so. The C. E. I. has plenty of work. It seems as every one lands while going through. While the Ohio State Telephone Company is about the only telephone job that amounts to anything as the Bell has established what they call the employees association and union men are about as welcome as the Kaiser would be in Washington unless they belong to said Association. While the other Telephone job is 90 per cent and in fairly good condition. The C. E. I. has a petition out for $7.00 per day. That seems to be about the only way they get an increase and the company generally cuts the employees request about half in two. We have Brother Paisly still existing on one leg, as he got his ankle broke early last Spring, and is still on the sick list. L. U. No. 59 was unfortunate to lose one good member when Brother Phil Zoleman died while at Warnsville farm. Will say Cleveland has just selected one of the squarest Mayor's toward organized labor, that could ever be put in office at the proper time, if he stands as good in the future as he has in the past. Cleveland has started a Labor Party, but wasn't strong enough to run a candidate for Mayor this election. Probably will enter a candidate next election. Well I have given about all the news that could be expected at the present time. Hoping this will dodge the waste paper basket and pass the censor, will close.

Your as before

W. I., Press Secretary.

L. U. NO. 60, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

Editor:

It is about time for another article to appear in the Worker and Brother Otto Dean being out of town will try and fill the job and cover the situation in San Antonio.

We have been on strike for five months and still pegging away at it and are going to continue to do so until these fat head contractors make up their minds to recognize us as an Organization and grant us the closed shop.

The Contractors agree that we are entitled to the increase we are asking for, but the sincere interest they have in the welfare of the public and residents of our city, they are compelled to refuse us the $7.00 per day, as it hurts their conscience, to have to charge the public and residents of our city any more than they are now charging for an hours work. They were paying us 75 cents an hour and charging their customers $1.50 an hour for our labor. And in most cases they were working apprentices that were receiving from $1.50 to $5.00 per day for their labor and charging their customers $1.50 per hour for their labor, and then have guts enough to come out and make a howl that they are looking out for the public's interest and welfare.

"Well there are a lot of narrow-minded suckers that fall for such stuff."

The contractors started out paying the rats $6.00 per day and I want to say, they were rats and that's all, as they were as far from being an electrician as I am from being a deacon of a church, and now they are paying anything a man, "I should have said rat as the term man applies only to men and not rats" ask for and in some instances they are paying as high as $10.00 per day of eight hours. I wonder what they charge their customers for that rat's time.

We are infected in San Antonio with an Open Shop Association. You fellows ever run up against the Citizen of Alliance or Manufacturers Association, or Contractors and Merchants Association, well if you have I want to say that is what we are up against.

There came a skunk into our wonderful city one day bent upon finding a job that he could make a fat salary without having to do anything to earn his money, and finding Labor Organizations here not as strongly organized as they should be, he having made a specialty of creating trouble with Labor and their employers, he started about to see what he could accomplish in the way of getting some one interested and finding a few electrical contractors that were going to have trouble or rather going to make trouble with their employees, this said skunk managed to get the Electrical Contractors interested, boosting of the wonderful results he had accomplished in Kansas City, Kansas and Los Angeles, California and they in turn went about with this said skunk and in their efforts managed to get a meeting called at the Chamber of Commerce thereby upon misrepresentation on the grounds that they were organizing for a better understanding between employer and employees and uplift of the working man regardless of his affiliation with a labor organization.

Well the organization was perfected and temporary officers elected and the secretary elected happened to be an ex-member of Local 60 and a charter member at that, also at one time an I. O. E. board member, and one of the temporary vice-presidents was also an ex-member and one who had taken great part in any affair that come up in Local 60 and he to this day boasts that he shot holes in telephone cables during the strike against the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Co. in this city. Everything went along fine until they claimed they had a membership of 248 and then they declared themselves. They lost a few members over their declaration that they intended to put Organized Labor out of existence in San Antonio but succeeded in bull-dozing the rest to stay in the fight stating that Organized Labor was a menace to the welfare of any respectable and peace loving community.

The entire Labor movement of San Antonio and other cities of Texas are doing all they can to combat their efforts to crush Organized Labor for they seem to have made San Antonio their Southwest Headquarters and are reaching out and Organizing Open Shop Associations all over the State, and to my knowledge they have succeeded in Organizing in four different cities, and they lend their efforts in any town that is having any trouble with their employees pretending to increase in wages or better working conditions.

Another thing that we are up against is that the majority of our County Officials and City Officials especially our mayor and police and fire commissioner, the latter being one of the largest stockholders in our largest electrical shop, are great advocates of the open shop and are putting forth their efforts in behalf of its success. "Well we are sawing wood and healing ourselves 100 per cent with poll tax receipts and I want to say we are going to use them."

We have had seven deserters so far and I don't believe we have any more jelly-spined sisters left in our organization and we feel we are better off without them as we want men and not fish or human beings that we continuously have to have a chiropractor working on their spine and be put to the expense of buying knee braces to keep them from falling by the wayside when we can use that money to a better advantage in fighting this old high cost of living.

Following is the list of names: E. G. Zoller, Dave Krisch, John Lott, William H. Flume, Aron Jones, C. H. Bunker and Edwin Klaus.

E. G. Zoller tried to slip one over on Local No. 60 by claiming he had the contract for the work on the Mexican Border Project sub-contracted from Martin Wright and he was going to sign an agreement with Local 60 for closed shop and give us the wages we were asking for and everything, but we investigated the case and found out that he was going to run the job for Martin Wright and notified him that we would not under no circumstances allow him or any other of our members to work on that work until Martin Wright signed up and straightened up his shop in San Antonio. Well he put up an awful howl about what a loyal union man he was and what he had done for the local, but we were forcing him to be a rat as he had a chance to clear about $5,000.00 in a year's time and he did not intend to let it slip, some union man. "EH".

Dave Krisch and John Lott the only excuse they had as that Zoller had offered them a job and he being their legal advisor they accepted

William Flume he just could not help himself as Martin Wright raised him on a milk bottle and poor Bill was afraid he would starve to death if he could not work for Martin Wright and besides Wright offered Bill the foremanship of his shop and Bill realizing he could never get to be foreman under normal conditions he fell hard.

Aron Jones, C. H. Bunker, Edwin Klaus, just could not resist temptation as they were rats of old and could not get away from the habit.

A large percentage of our members have been forced to travel and we certainly appreciate the assistance these boys are receiving from the Organizations these boys land in, especially Local 716 of Houston, Texas has rendered us some valuable assistance along the lines of finding jobs for some of our members and we only hope that some day we will be able to return the favor.

The list of donations to our appeal for financial aid is as follows:

Previously acknowledged in the Worker$254.35
 Local No. 110 25.00

Total$279.35

In conclusion I wish to say I hope the amendments to our Constitution will carry by an overwhelming majority as it is time we get out of the rut we have been in and get busy and go to it and see if we can have The Electrical Workers at the head of the list of The American Federation of Labor as being the largest in numerical strength, and I want to say it can be done for the reason we have the field to draw from, so let's get busy and go down the line and make it a reality.

Well kind Editor if you will kindly find space for this article in The Worker I promise I will not take advantage of your good will and patience again, so I will pull the switch.

Ben. J. Crowther,
 Financial Secretary.

L. U. No. 60, San Antonio, Texas.

L. U. NO. 78, CLEVELAND, OHIO.

Editor:

It seems as though our local press secretary, like the great majority of the press secretaries of the Brotherhood, is suffering from a bad attack of writers' cramp, or else he must have both arms broken. For there has been only one article in the Worker from Local No. 78 in God knows how long.

Now that I have given the Press Secretary a little panning (and that goes for all press secretaries that are not delivering the goods) I will endeavor to take over his job for this time, and let the Brotherhood and public at large know that Local No. 78 is still doing business at the old stand and prospering.

In the past year we have increased our membership about 250 per cent, and have received a very substantial increase in wages. Our wage scale at the present time being, we believe as high, if not higher than any other local in the Brotherhood. Work at the present time is not very rushing, but at that most all the members are working, even though some of them are moving pianos for a living. But at that I guess it is not such a bad job, for the Brother that is engaged at that business at present tells me there are other things to move besides pianos, and in these dry days—well I have heard several of the Brothers ask, among them Shorty, if there was a chance for a job. Our Municipal election is just past, and Mayor Davis has been returned to office, by a large vote, for his third term. It is very evident that Organized Labor and the public in general are satisfied with Mayor Davis. I can say for Union Labor, and Local No. 78 in particular that we have always received very fair treatment from Mayor Davis and his administration in the past two terms of office, and we have no fear but that the same friendly relations that have existed in the past will continue during the coming term of office.

As an example of what Mayor Davis has done for Union Labor, I will state that at the start of the steel strike here, he drew up and had put through Council, an ordinance prohibiting the importation of scabs into the city of Cleveland, and the law has been upheld, is the fine part about it, for there have been several scabs turned back at the depots, and sent out of town on arrival here. Now that is a law that the Union men of other towns throughout the country should try and put over in their towns and cities, and if every town and city in the U. S. had alike law it wouldn't be long until the professional scab was put out of business. Now I suppose some of the dear brothers will accuse me of playing politics, for getting that off my chest. But as I didn't pull it until after election, and I am not working for the city, I hardly think they can make it stick.

By the time this article appears in the Worker, I suppose the referendum will be in and counted, and we will know if we are to have a new constitution, or if we are still standing on our feet. Of course there is much in the new amendments that we as cablesplacers, and Brothers of other branches don't like or never will, but simply because we don't always get what we want we should not block progress by trying to stop all forward movements. Local No. 78 also No. 315 of Chicago, presented amendments to the New Orleans Convention, defining the jurisdiction of cable-splicing. We were unsuccessful in getting the amendments before the convention, as both were killed in committee. But we are not sitting on our tails hollering murder, for we are for the new constitution, and the newly elected officers, and will back them up in every way we can, as long as they deliver the goods. The outlook for new locals of cablesplacers, is not very bright under the new constitution, and the present locals will have to watch very keen or the rollers will be slipped under them. For that last part of the Preamble in Article XXXV is a very dangerous weapon in the hands of designing locals, that may wish to put you out of business. So keep your eyes open you "Cableist", for it is very easy to upset harmony. Anyway it must be a game of "Watchful Waiting" now, and planning for the future. and maybe some day the Mighty and All Powerful will give the splicer a place on the map.

I was very much pleased to see a letter in the October Worker from Local Union No. 386. Local No. 78 congratulates you No. 386 on the great progress you have made and wishes you all the luck in the world in your efforts to line up the Bell bunch. You will pardon us if we mention that we have had the $8 day for the past year, but of course that does not prevail on the Bell job. I am very much in favor of your suggestion, Brother Manning, relative to the Splicers Locals getting better acquainted, and will have No. 78 get busy along those lines at once.

Let us hear from you 537, 396, 315, and 386, if in no other way, let it be through the Worker.

That backfire stuff No. 142 is good. Keep it up, don't weaken.

If Joe Erhart known as the "Hairy-Headed Wonder" should see this article, and is able to write, the old Cooky would like to hear from you.

The shot has about died out now, and as this is rather a dippy-dopy article anyway,

I had better wipe up or Chuck will chuck it in the waste basket. Wishing the newly elected officers and the I. B. E. W. gobs good luck, I am

Fraternally yours,

L. U. NO. 83, LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Just a few lines from Lemon Land to let you know how the self styled substantial citizen and tax payer whose activities are mostly confined to deporting and jailing union men and importing Japs and the working stiff are getting along.

Our troubles while many are about of the same variety as elsewhere. We have as many varieties of unionism as Heinz, the pickle man, and when we are all boiled down about the only difference between us is the degree of ignorance that exists. In spite of this confusion every branch of our trade in common with other trades have been on strike during the summer. Trades identified with the Building Trades Council are having jurisdictional trouble with the theatrical stage employees in the moving picture industry here. There is a fight ahead of us and will advise the brothers to not head this way until the atmosphere clears up. However should you come this way see our Business Agent before going to work, as it promotes better feeling.

Our delegates to the convention got back safe, but empty handed. Their report would indicate that the delegates from this coast got caught in the jam between the poker game and the barrel of booze and before they could extract themselves the engineer in charge of the steam roller backed over them and nobody got away except Grasser. On behalf of 83 I want to congratulate all officers elected by the convention. You may not have been our choice, but majorities rule and we will give you the best that is in us. There is a strong sentiment for the one big union on this coast, and they are not to be sneezed at. They are the only ones that make the law and order. (We get the law they give the orders) bunch sit up and take notice. Big biz knows that when the O. B. U. gets after him there is a finished fight. So he immediately arranges a conference with the hat in hand labor leader (who notified him in time for the M. & M. to import for the job) which takes place a couple of weeks hence. In the mean time through delay circumstances compel men to go back to work. Pure and simple call this the labor movement. I got another name for it. The merchants and manufacturers and the I. W. W. have no use for the A. F. of L. and Labor Leaders who banquet with the M. & M. and sure the I. W. W. have a hard time convincing anybody that they are exactly right. So let us hope for better results.

Before closing I want to thank all the locals who contributed to 83 during her troubles, especially those locals that placed our men to work who were on strike.

Local No. 34 it is hats off to you every time. my old linemen's home. I started for the benefit of Charlie Ellis is gaining ground. Remember that we have 148,000 members. A penny a day from each one would create a fund $1,480.00 per day, $10,360 per week, $540,200 per year. We could use it for a strike benefit and not miss it. My best wishes to Hildebrand of 153, Maze 184, and all the regulars everywhere.

Yours for the cause,

W. W. (shorty) Wade.

Local No. 103 held one grand reception for their returned heroes of the World War. A combination smoke talk and general gathering that was real homelike and deserving of praise. Plenty of action from start to finish with Dan Canty and D. A. Queeney putting the skids on Jim Nichols D. S.

The committee consisted of service men and was run in fine fashion, but as you know there are always a few who will never offer a suggestion before an affair but sure to criticize after it is over.

The service members numbering 150, were presented with a gold No. 103, I. B. E. W. watch fob. It was a most appropriate gift for the service men, and I know each and every one will cherish it as their expression showed when presented by Acting Mayor Francis Ford and by the way Frank sure did make a hit with the boys, which of course delighted the future candidate for Mayor of Boston.

A most solemn effect took place, when the highest of praise was offered for our deceased Brother Joseph Costello who made the "Heroic Supreme Sacrifice". Being the only member of this local who died in service we should indeed be thankful for we all hold his memory in highest esteem as a kind, loving big hearted Brother.

The affair was handled in a very decisive way by Brothers Mellen, Gladney, Canty, O'Leary and Griffin.

Our worthy president, Martin Joyce, as usual was Johnnie on the spot. When various things desired to "detour" Marty worked traffic officer and fined only Jimmie O'Donnells Hawaiian Hula-Hula who offered to—"Well" Jimmie has learned to play a Ukalele any how. Two of his students are Andy Johnson and Dan Canty if actions count. They were near the stage when Jimmie left. I wonder why Frank Sheehan was having that heart to heart talk with Frank Ford. Look out Frank you know what S. I. W. meant in the Army.

I never knew Steve Murphy had a grievance against colored people until I heard him yell at that Battle Royal.

As usual Jimmie Kihoe was diligently working at the door while the other dear Brothers smiled on.

The boys working in New Bedford all came up by automobile. That's appreciation service men too. Business Agent Queeney led his Highland House. Troubadors up the stage stairs several times during the evening, with a "magic wand" in his left pants pockets. It was the parties desire to know if this was just a rehearsal or the regular act.

We all expected to see Ralph Gillpatrick and his overseas quartet, with Thomas McHugh's Cornet Jazz. Can't explain why they muffed.

Did you notice our future I. V. P. with his Irish resolution hat on?

Everything is progressing rapidly in 103 just now and a smile is most prominent on every Brothers countenance.

Enclosed find a clipping from a Boston newspaper in regards to rats. Seems to apply a most humorous description to some almost humans I know:

Man's Perpetual Foe—The Rat.

From my experience with rats I have arrived at the conclusion that it is a question whether man will get rid of the rat or the rat get rid of the man.

When we come to compare the terrible loss of life caused by plague visitations in this country and in Europe, it doesn't require much wisdom to see that rodents are a most formidable foe.

The most discouraging feature of the past and present history of the struggle against the roden is that no methods of extermination seem to have been evolved in the centuries that the struggle has been going on. Of course man has killed millions of rats, and so has the rat done likewise to man.

One method of rat killing which has been revived from ancient custom long forgotten, is the use of fire. This was practiced in the 10th century, and now it is revived again. It will never reach the prominence it did in Europe during the 10th century, when organized fire brigades were formed to apply the torch to buildings, destroying millions of dollars' worth of property and simply causing the rats to burrow into the earth, where it was impossible to reach them.

For years I have been studying and teaching new methods of rat extermination, but I fail to see them being generally adopted. I don't pretend to be the only person who knows it all in exterminating rats, and I would welcome an interchange of ideas on the subject with others who may have been working along new lines, but I do know that the methods in use in the past are not particularly good and that the trail I have blazed practically alone on new lines is giving the best results to date.

When I think of the super devilish cunning of the rat and the cumbersome and childish methods used by intelligent people to exterminate them it looks almost hopeless.

The nation should turn the resources of its ablest scientists and investigators to the subject and formulate a plan of action that would wipe out the scourge of civilization. What our government accomplished in stamping out the yellow fever mosquito in the Canal Zone can be done with the roden if we only tackle the problem in the same way. It will also help to reduce the high cost of living, for these parasites destroy more food annually than any other agency.

Will close with happy thoughts of some day having control of Boston's waterfront and our many electric hoists.

A most Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year to each and every loyal member of our great I. B. E. W.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Steve Mealey.

GEORGE L. KELLY.Secretary-Treasurer Joint Executive Board of New England.

Editor:

In the September issue of the Worker, the following appeared in notes from Local 142:

"In the heat of a campaign for election to our Conference Board and as a delegate to the National Convention, one of our brother candidates loudly cried to the writer: 'Believe me, when I get goin' I'll smash one standpatter's slate to pieces.' A count of the votes showed that he only dented the slate—have to do better next time, 'Bill!'"

Brother Glacken insists that he did "smash" the slate. The following can well speak for itself:

Standpatter's Slate Conference Board.

	Votes.
Broder	383
Kelley	426
Mahoney	286

Glacken Slate Conference Board.

	Votes
Glacken	381
Ramsey	247

Kelley	426
Broder	383
Glacken	381

Past President Mahoney, formerly Sergeant in the Army, is very persistent in his agitation of the 44-hour week for the local. His proposition is sort of a "only-pay-for-when-you-work" one. The fact that Brother Mahoney served about 14 months overseas, working long hours perhaps this is his way of getting back at the army. Who knows!

Now the question comes, who made Bro. Mahoney work those long hours in the Army? Before going overseas he was in Capt. Dolan's company. Who knows but what it was Captain Dolan from whom those horrid orders to work those long, long hours came. Anyhow, Capt. Dolan is one of Brother Mahoney's chief supporters in his proposition. Of course it is Citizen Doland and Citizen Mahoney now and that makes a difference.

The writer is opposed to Brother Mahoney's scheme because it isn't logically based. Be this as it may, at the last meeting of the local, or rather a recent meeting, things were pretty exciting. Capt. Dolan took the writer to task for opposing the proposition and so did others, but taking to task people who oppose you, is sort of a military trait and the captain should not be criticized severely for it. In other words, chastizing thy opposer is an Army officers recreation, so now there you are!

In proving a point after the same meeting referred to above, Capt. Dolan in a quick series of "Didja", "didja" "didjas" to some members who were listening to his arguments, looked as if he were "calling off" as they term it in the Army. I thought for a minute he would forget himself and say "At—ten—shum!"

Here's a funny one: After Brother Mahoney had been talking a reasonable length of time on the 44-hour week subject, a member arose and asked if the chair would enlighten him as to just what the brother was talking about. Pretty hard on "J. O."

The writer contended that "comparison" was the poorest basis for argument that Brother Mahoney could advance in connection with his 44-hour week proposition. Captain Dolan disagreed with the writer as did Sergeant Mahoney and Sergeant Ingalls, all military men. And yet the articles governing warfare say, as written by General Bell, and approved by the War Department, that "gain your objective first and make comparisons afterward". Of course I wouldn't expect a captain or a sergeant to follow the antic of a General, O, no! why should they?

If you're being paid $14 per week, and for doing the same kind of work I'm receiving only $12 per week, and I claim that I should be receiving as much as you and put my argument up to the boss on that basis of comparison, what argument would I have if he reduced the other fellow so that both would receive the same amount per week? May not done, but it's possible.

If you're looking for something you think you ought to receive let the facts speak for themselves; don't use the other fellow as a comparison.

If your job is what it should be it will speak for itself. Don't boast.

Beware of the man who is continually telling you of the good he's doing. Something about that man is not right.

Some people know too much to believe anything and they are not all outside of Boston either.

The Press Secretary has been called a "nut", that he's "crazy", that he's a "joke" and many other things, but nobody has proved any these charges as yet. They haven't even told him.

What's the difference between delegates talking before a meeting of the local and a convention? Answer: At one you frighten them into things at the other you have to convince them.

Our General Secretary who can also be saluted as Councilor. Statesman, Politician and Citizen Donaghue, stated in a recent conversation with the writer that he (the writer) would certainly go good at one Convention—he emphasized the "one". Well, that's one more than other members would make a "good man for."

Such a statement can only be attributed to pre-thought and tonguefod. Of course in view of the fact that company was in the room at the time he probably was compelled to limit the number of conventions, otherwise, who knows what the number would have been. What do these City Fathers care about big numbers—mere trifle.

One good man, at one convention any time, might save a local lots of money and gain many things. It has been done! Right Councillor?

Back-Fire from Local 142, Boston.

So Brother A. W. Wright of Local Union 658, Little Rock, Arkansas, has been heard from. Here's what he has to say in the September issue of the Worker, about L. U. 142:

"I notice that Brother Thomas Hession, member of L. U. 142, which is located in the city of baked beans fame, is pleased to comment in a sarcastic way on my article on the 'league of nations'. That is right Brother Hession have a good time, we all enjoy your efforts to appear as intelligent as other people." We believe that you mean well anyway."

If Brother Wright's ideas on the League of Nations are as correct as the above accusation, then I don't wonder at the comment contained in the Worker of July. In the first place Brother Hession did not write the comment, and if he did I should have to agree with him in his comments. Just because Brother Hession's photograph appeared in that issue of the Worker why pick on him? The Press Secretary of L. U. 142 assume all the blame.

If Brother Wright's article on the League of Nations is really sound and logical, then I say it should receive congressional attention or Senatorial.

Brother Wright says in his article in the September issue of the Worker, that "an injury to one is the concern of all." I agree with him very much. Now will you explain to me Brother Wright why such a pertinent remark about Mr. Hession as appears in the September issue of the Worker, i. e.,—"to appear as intelligent as other people."?

Perhaps because his name is Wright he thinks he is always right!

Bang me all you want to Brother, I can stand it; I'm used to it.

L. U. No. 659, Dunkirk, N. Y., wants to know what is the most pressing problem before the people today. He asks that in the September issue. Tell him Mr. Wright, the President, Congress and the Senate and myself can't.

We are not in position to report any news of special importance from this local. The boys seem to all be busy and prospects are looking good for to keep them busy for some time to come. There are no new construction jobs in progress now, but there is quite a bit of building going on so that keep a lot of work for the inside men. Their scale is now 85 cents an hour. The lineman's scale is 75 cents an hour.

The coal situation presents a grave appearance and if it is continued it is going to be a serious affair in a very short time. There seem to be some hope now of reaching a settlement at any early date.

The strike has been and is yet a powerful weapon for organized labor but the time is changing and it is now and the future is still more evident that we are going to have to find more effective methods of gaining the share and just rights that labor is entitled to. If ones vote is carefully and judiciously handled he is making a step in the right direction. We would not be too hasty to grasp at all the new organizations that are presented to us and on the other hand we should not be the last to leave some of the old organizations that have ceased to serve the laboring class for many years. On the one hand you are voting for something that you are sure that will not serve your interests and the other is taking some chances. Let's take a chance.

INFORMATION WANTED.

This local is very anxious to locate one H. C. Ferguson, who was formerly a member of 177; this was in October, 1918. While here he lost his wife by death, and left here about the 14th of October, 1918 for Americus, Ga.

He has not been heard from by us since that time and we have made some effort to locate him, but have been unable to do so. If any of the Brothers know of this man or of his or his wife's people, you will confer a favor by communicating with us.

The names of his wife's parents are J. L. Oliver and Mrs. Minnie Oliver, and are said to have been residents of Americus, Georgia, at the time of Mrs. Ferguson's death.

Please give this letter the widest publicity and communicate with us if you have any information of Ferguson or his relatives.

At this writing the country is involved in several industrial struggles which will mean almost the life or death of organized labor, mainly the steel strike and the miners strike. The long talked of showdown I think is near at hand, and I hope that the various organizations that are not directly involved will not sit back and watch the best organization in the American Labor movement destroyed the United Mine Workers are the biggest and most democratic organization in America today. To whip them Capital will go any length murdering men, women and children, is all in a day work for big business. And now the government seems to have turned turtle, but they sure have made a mistake by trying to stop collective bargaining by injunctions. They do not know the miners or they would not have attempted any such measure. It is very likely that the miners strike will be over by the time this issue of the Journal goes through the mail, but if it is it will not be a victory for the coal ? ? ? Injunctions will not break the will of the majority and majority rules in this case. The yellowness throughout the land tells you that the steel strike is broken, but is it? I rather think it is not, and will not be. You might break a man's will through force, but his spirit still lives. The spirit of organization can never be crushed, with all the military power in the land, which it seems is going to be used to stamp out the American Labor movement. How do you feel brothers, you who went overseas to crush autocracy, tyranny and despotism to come back home and see it in force here, and if I am not very much mistaken backed up by the military autocracy of the United States government. Shout for democracy brother, for that is all you can do is shout. It is so far in the distance, that it sure is invisible about as close to us as Judge Gary will be to Heaven when he dies. Well Local 142 of Boston you sure win. The drinks are on me. When did you find that "Shavetail" you think so much of? I will not doubt your word, but I sure would have liked very much to have met captain, for I could have said I had met one "man" wearing the bars over there, and that would be saying a mouthful. Galesburg was awarded the 1920 Convention of the Illinois State Federation of Labor. Our delegate to the Peoria Convention has not made his report yet, on account of sickness at last meeting. Says he never drank a drop while there. We take him at his word, but you never can tell what will happen when a bunch of good fellows get together. We were asked by delegates at said convention, for an organizer from here to go to the Southern part of Illinois to line up some Telephone Operators. We sent them. Mrs. Shreves, who reports she was successful, putting in a local at Gillispie and Staunton, Illinois. We think she would make a good organizer for the operators and one that would get results. Things are going along about the same here, as everybody is working and prospects look good for steady work all winter for both inside and outside men. We hope so anyway. Having written more than I intended to when starting this article, I will close by wishing the Steel Trust and Coal Operators a gang of hard luck in their industrial disputes, that are on at this time.

Yours fraternally,

A. W. Maze, P. S.

Just a few lines to let the boys know a little about Charleston. Things are dull in the city nowadays. The fellows are still out on their strike at the Port Terminals failing to get what they are asking for.

Work is scarce in and around Charleston and news is worse, so if you will excuse me I will stop. If anybody knows of a job any where that pays for the work let us know.

Well boys, prosperity, good wages, and good conditions is the wish of 188 to you all.

Having reached a settlement with our employers, will try to give a few lines to the Worker. The Hydro Light & Power Co., locked out all of the lineman and wireman ten days before an old agreement expired. The superintendent of the Hydro admitted that they expected half of the employees to have the union and return to work. But our men held the ranks, and bought the Hydra to its knees. Our men at Hydro were only out about two weeks. W. R. Cooper, Electrical Contractor and Neal & Stoll, Electrical Contractors signed up immediately without employees losing any time. We are signed up until January 1, 1921, but next agreement is to be signed October 1, 1920, taking effect Jan. 1, 1921. Our present wage scale is 75 cents per hour for journeymen, wiremen and linemen; 55 cents per hour for helpers, $145 per month for lamp trimmers and patrolmen; $160.00 per month for meter men and troublemen; $160.00 per month for line foreman. That is not a bad scale for a town of this size, considering the population only about 10,000. But we are 100 per cent strong and fight for our rights. Therefore making ourselves be heard among our so-called Lords and Masters. The boys are all about lost as we do not get the Worker any more and do not get the news. We wish you would send some our way so we can keep up to the minute with all the big talk which the Worker contains. Several of the locals have written us for funds to help carry on this battle and our Local is so small that our treasury is nearly delapidated all the time. We only wish that we could help our brothers in need. But we are not financially able to do so, but our latch string is out in case any of them happens to stop off here. We have changed our meeting night to Tuesdays of each week instead of Thursday, and we meet at the Electricians hall on West 5th Street. Hoping that this letter will find its way to the Worker and that we shall each receive a copy of the same.

Yours fraternally,

Clyde Webster,

Things of great importance have happened in our locality since our last appearance in the Worker.

Conventions have been held—old John Barleycorn has been quietly laid to rest, mourned by a multitude of friends—new and unexpected world champions have been discovered in one great national sport—and gentle reader I have a wonderful surprise for you, our new courthouse has been dedicated, yes sir, it happened October 18. I knew it would surprise you, we ourselves did not expect it would be ready for dedication for several years to come. No doubt it was through some great mistake of the commissioners that it was turned over to us completed so quickly. Would like to state that although the Electrical Equipment on this job was installed by an out-of-town concern, we still are more than thankful that one of our local contractors was given the installation of all electrical fixtures. Several thousand in all, which furnished work for quite a crew of our boys.

One of the most interesting bits of news at this writing is the safe return to us of Brother R. Menz from overseas, he being the last one to return of the 56 who enrolled in various branches of the service from No. 212. It has been mentioned several times before, but for the benefit of those who may not have read it, will state that only two—Brothers R. Blackham and W. Bierhoist failed to return, they at present to the best of our knowledge—are quietly resting in No Man's land. Our prayer is, that in the great beyond no reward will be to great for them after having given their young lives as nobly as they did.

In their memory, as well as in honor of those returned to us, we are planning a Memorial and Reception to be given Nov. 15, 1919 at which nothing will be left undone toward furnishing entertainment befitting the occasion.

It is with much regret that we mention the death of October 12 of Brother Thos. Higgins. Although to those who had been in recent touch with Brother Higgins this was expected—Still many of his friends and brother members were shocked when this sad news reached them. Much could be said worthy to the memory of Brother Higgins concerning his life actions in the union labor movement. Not simply a "card worker" but union from the bottom of his heart, acquired for him a world of friends which he held unto death.

A short visit paid us by Brother F. Warner was appreciated by all who had the pleasure of seeing him. Brother Warner although one of our old members, has not been with us for quite some time. At the time of his stop over with us he was enroute to "Gay New Yank" whether Bowery or Broadway we know not—we wish him luck regardless.

Our outfit here has been working rather steady lately with prospects in our favor for the near future. We expect to boast soon of a new wage scale although nothing definite on same at this writing, we expect early developments of a satisfactory nature.

Since this will reach our readers shortly before Thanksgiving we desire to extend to you compliments of the season, may all be able both physically and financially to enjoy the day as custom has ordained.

We are and beg to remain,

Fraternally yours,

Local 212, I. B. E. W.

The following stanza is published in memory of Brother Thos. J. Higgins of Local No. 212, Cincinnati, Ohio, who died October 12, 1919.

Green be the turf above you,
Friend of our better days;
None knew you but to love you,
None named you but to praise.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
We often sit and think of you
And wish you were here again.
We think of you in silence—
No eyes can see us weep—
But many a silent tear we shed
When others are asleep.

Just a few lines from No. 24 to let you know that we are still here and doing business. We have initiated 184 applicants since March 1st in spite of the opposition of "Ma Bell". There has been for some time a species of Hun propaganda going the rounds to the effect "That there are no telephone men left in No. 24. All that is left is a few light men and we will give them until December 1st to go to pieces." I understand that a very strenuous effort is being made to break up the Fargo, N. D. local. I have been told that a Mr. Greer Plant Chief is visiting the members and trying to get them to drop out. I trust that the boys will keep a stiff upper lip and that his efforts will not be successful.

It is our desire to organize our city and the surrounding territory and help organize the state and the Northwestern group to the high degree of efficiency that obtains in the New England States thereby placing ourselves in opposition to get better wages and working conditions through conference and not having to resort to a strike.

We consider a 100 per cent organization to be the best insurance against strikes and lockouts. We would be glad to hear from any local in the N. W. group that is interested.

And last but not least we have been organizing the employees of the Minneapolis General Electric Co. We are 100 per cent in the Line construction. Trouble, Highline Patrolmen, Wiremen and Arc Departments and 65 per cent in the Operating Department. So don't forget your little green ticket when you come this way. If this comes to the attention of Brother Lyles of Texas, a cable splicer, I wish to suggest that he call on us the next time he comes to Minneapolis. I might say in passing that Local No. 23 of St. Paul is coming right along they have a mighty live Business Agent in Brother Mitchel and he is getting the cooperation of the members.

Yours fraternally,

E. M. Stanchfield, Financial Secretary.

Having failed to send any word concerning Local No. 217 in the past, I take it upon my shoulders to notify you and our brothers that this local is very much alive.

I noticed in the correspondence of August Worker that Local 720 of Camden, N. J. states they are taking in a number of members from the Trenton Division and further states that our local is quite slow which got on my nerves. Now that Local 720 is so active why haven't they referred these members to our Local instead of taking applications and failing to notify an applicant to be initiated so they could apply Article VII, Sec. V of the constitution. We are proud to state that during our time of existence since March, 1918, our shop committee has not lost one case of our brother members that speaks well for the past and present committees and we hope all other locals can say the same. There hasn't been one case for the Advisory Board to handle.

We are all working steady with the exception of one member G. Ferguson who was trimming arc lamps and had the misfortune of a lamp bracket breaking while he was on a 30-foot pole and fell breaking his arm in two places but he is on the road to recovery.

Our local is very small but very much alive. Our meetings are attended by 50 per cent of the membership which shows that the members are very much interested in union affairs. The electrical department of our shop is 100 per cent that including electricians, helpers, crane operators, crane directors and generator attendants, so I don't think we are so slow in getting members. Our motto is get while the getting is good.

With best wishes and success for the Brotherhood, I am

Fraternally yours,

C. E. Lawton, F. S.

Once again a little note to show that 292 is on the map and heading strong. First, we have succeeded in lining up several more shops in town, and we are pushing rapidly forward to a 100 per cent organization. Our officers are just as live as the juice we handle and the results are coming in pretty surely. We are initiating an average of six to eight members every meeting night, and believe me it sure looks fine to see the boys come trotting in. We had a very fine meeting, the last one being in October. We had our old brother Skoog drop in to see us from Cleveland. The boys were overjoyed to see him, and right away demanded a speech. Well instead of giving us a cut and dried line of hot air, he gave us a talk, which was really educating, enlightening and I will say mighty good stuff for our new brothers who recently came in and did not know Skoog. We are buckling on our armour for next Spring. We have in this town two associations which are very very friendly? Please do not omit the question mark, To Labor. One is the Citizens Alliance, self termed, the other is the American Committee, also so self termed. The former is so friendly to organized labor that they would burn every union man at the stake. If they could. The latter claims to have an absolute monopoly on Americanism. Now dear editor any and all individuals who dare to carry a union card is or are Bolshevik. They cannot be Americans and Union men at the same time. Thus sayeth the Lords of these societies. We were rather sorry to hear that Brother Broach met with an auto accident, but pleased to learn he is getting along fine now. No. 292 has gone a step further. Our examining board has found that some of the brothers although Al mechanics are somewhat lame on certain theoretical facts, so we have started a school in which they may learn some things. We have some pretty good talent right in 292. Men that have taught school for the U. S. Government during the war. These boys are conducting the school along very practical lines and we hope to have our boys mighty efficient and up to pitch, before long and challenge all comers to show better men than we have. Further we are going to try and get a State law passed making it absolutely compulsory for all electrical workers to take state examinations and carry a license. Our boys being trained will pass alright, but it is going to hit the skates pretty hard. Because some of them go to some night school for a month or two and learn how to hold a screw driver and pliers, and then come out as wiremen. Others work as handy man in some hardware store and go out as wire fixers in the rat shops. We are determined to put a kink in that kind of game and believe me we shall do it too. We are also going to get some 292 men on the State Examining Board to see that the game is played square. We have one on now, Brother Trykman, who is also chief inspector in Minneapolis.

I forgot to mention that we were tickled to death with the convention report of our delegate and believe it was a mighty fine progressive convention at that. What tickled us very much was to have old Brother Broach as a vice-president and delegated to our district territory. We have had some little trouble here with a firm known as the Powers Mercantile Co. These people defied organized labor and our Central Labor body and also Building Trades body voted to put them on the unfair list, and believe me boys we are making them sweat. We shall fight them to a finish. It's great to see the banners stating, "This firm unfair to organized labor" and organized labor is staying away to.

I would like to hear from some other locals what they do when a brother branches out for himself contracting. Whether he has to take a withdrawal or does he stay as a dues paying member. This is a question that has bothered us for a long time, and we should like to hear from other locals how they handle the situation, and its effects. I believe I have taken up enough space already, so will close with best wishes.

Fraternally yours,

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter from the Los Angeles Central Labor Council, which is self explanatory. We respectfully request that you give it space in the Journal, if possible.

I am also enclosing a copy of our Official Unfair List, containing the names of men who worked here during the recent strike.

The majority of the men whose names appear thereon are those who agreeably surprised us by coming off the job, and also caused very little if any surprise by going back.

We hope that you can find space in the Journal to give these individuals the publicity they so richly deserve.

We are taking up the Constitution as amended at our meeting tomorrow night. My personal opinion is that it will be approved by this Local Union, and I hope it will be adopted by the Brotherhood.

Fraternally yours,

Marion C. Mohen,

Recording Secretary.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 20, 1919.
To All Central Labor Councils and All Labor Papers Throughout the United States and Canada:

The Labor Movement of Los Angeles requests that each organization receiving this circular notify its affiliated locals of the facts herein contained, and each editor of each labor paper also is requested to write an article upon this matter and to call upon the editors of the daily press in his respective city and endeavor to have articles printed which will deal with this subject.

The Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Los Angeles is making every effort to bring wage-earners to Southern California. Advertisements are being printed broadcast which contain three statements: (1) That work is plentiful in Los Angeles; (2) That no labor troubles exist here; (3) That high wages prevail.

Each of these assertions is a deliberate falsehood.

There is no other city in the United States where there are so many idle men and women year in and year out. This condition is due to the fact that thousands of persons are attracted here annually as a result of persistent advertising and, upon their arrival, find it impossible to secure work.

Instead of there being no labor troubles in Los Angeles at this time, exactly the reverse is true. More than 16,000 men and women are now on strike. A number of these strikes have been in effect for many weeks.

The statement sent out by the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association that high wages are paid in Los Angeles is known to be untrue by every wage-earner who has ever visited this city, as the wage scale here is lower than that which is paid in any other city of equal population in the United States, averaging $1.00 per day less than the wages paid elsewhere.

The Labor Movement of Los Angeles never has taken the position that wage-earners from other states should not come to this city, but it does take the position that they should not be lured here under false representations. Those intending to come to Southern California should be fully acquainted with the facts prior to their departure from their old homes and their arrival in a strange land. Those who come here experience unemployment; in addition to this they will at once be subjected to the exactions of as merciless a gang of profiteers as curse the face of the earth. Their specialty is to gouge those who are compelled to rent—furnished rooms, apartments and houses. So merciless are these rent pirates that the sky would seem to be their limit.

It has well been said that Southern California is Paradise for the rich and Purgatory for the poor.

With these facts presented in an impartial manner the Labor Movement of Los Angeles feels that should the requests contained in the opening paragraph of this circular be complied with no wage-earner will come to Southern California without fully being informed of conditions actually existing here.

Fraternally,
Los Angeles Central Labor Council,
C. L. Myers,
Secretary-Treasurer.

L. U. NO. 382, COLUMBIA, S. C.

Editor:

"Greetings to all Local Unions." This being my first letter to our Worker, you will soon find out that I am not much on writing, but anyway I must say for Local No. 382, we are still in progress, but business seems a little dull now, but we are trying to hold together, our linemen here, as they have had some drawback in getting their agreement signed, but think they will win out. The inside wiremen let the contractors sign the old agreement, but with all that we are doing nicely. We have about seventy-five members on roll and we have every shop in town a closed shop in fact Columbia, S. C., is one hundred per cent organized and conditions are fairly good.

There is one thing I want to call your attention to, and that is whenever you come to Columbia, be sure you bring the card properly signed with your local seal on it or you may have some trouble with it. We have such trouble some time. You would certainly laugh if you could meet with us some time. Of course we do big discussion of business. I guess I better not tell on them to much. I'm sure you have had all such experiences, one Brother will bring up some thing, and the other Brother thinks it's a personal affair and that's the way it goes. Now my idea is to have a good live executive committee to settle all such cases, and let us see if we can't have more harmony in our meetings and pull together and you will see we will get along better. As this is my first letter I won't detain your attention any longer, and let us all, join hand and heart and work together for a good and successful end. Hope to write a letter next time. This little note from 382 is to extend to all our brother electrical workers a warm welcome to our city, thanking you in advance for a few minutes of your time.

W. F. Hughes,
Press Secretary.

L. U. NO. 434, DOUGLAS, ARIZONA.

Editor:

Just a few lines to let you know that L. U. No. 434 is still on the map and still gaining in membership, although I have been unable to attend any meetings for the past two months on account of sickness in the family, so I am not prepared to give any account of what has taken place during that time and my chief object in writing at this time is to correct my mistake in my last letter. I stated that the Electrical Workers were meeting at the Mine, Mill, and Smelterman's hall at the northeast corner of 16th Street. My only mistake is that it is called the Trainmen's hall. This may be of some benefit to some brothers coming into Douglas and getting confused in finding our hall.

Well I think this is all for this time and will try and give you more news next time, with best wishes to all International Officers and all Local Officers and members, as well. From Local Union 434, Douglas, Ariz.

Fraternally yours,
J. C. McCuniff, P. S.

L. U. NO. 478, VALPARAISO, IND.

Editor:

Having successfully installed Local 478 of Valparaiso, Ind., I want to state that they have a mighty fine bunch of boys.

Have only had two meetings and they are looking forward for better working conditions and wages, and we have also sent a delegate around to visit the different labor unions to break the news that they now have an electrical workers local who will help them uphold the union movement. And as to what I have seen in the members of Local 478 they have some real fighting blood in their veins, but for God's sake don't use it on one another save it for the scabs and money men of the country. As this is the initial letter to the Worker, hope it don't escape the Worker.

Fraternally,
B., Press Secretary.
Local Union No. 478, Valparaiso, Ind.

L. U. NO. 494, MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Editor:

Milwaukee is situated on the East bank of Lake Michigan, about ninety miles north of Chicago, and up until the present time I don't believe any of the brothers have heard of L. U. 494.

Some how or other we have always managed to elect a press secretary, who would either break his arm or didn't know how to write. Just once do I remember of anything in the Worker from 494, and that was a picture taken at one of our picnics. We were so excited about having it in our Journal that we forgot to label it, and then no one knows who the pests were.

To get down to facts No. 494 has been working hard to reach the 500 mark by New Years and from all indications will succeed. That will mean a gain of almost 100 per cent for the year. It would do no good to tell you of the closed shops we have in this town, the most important thing is the open shops. Among the largest is the Herman Andrae Electric Co. They have done work in almost every important town in the middle West. Some how or other they manage to get by, by getting their men to join the local in the town they are working in. This manner of pulling the wool over our eyes must be stopped at once. In the past they have been able to get by with considerable work, and as long as we are not on the lookout to beat them at their own game we can never get them to sign up. The most interesting piece of news organized labor ever received was when a bill giving the Fire and Police Commission authority to grant private detective agencies a license to operate, was passed at the State Capitol.

The Commission held a special meeting to receive objections to granting a license to any detective agents. It was worth a year's suffering in the hands of these modern pirates to see the gang turn out to protest.

The Federated Trades Council engaged an attorney to present facts in a form that would not violate the working rules of the lawyer's Union. By the looks of things those organized strike breakers will die a sure death in this vicinity.

I am inserting an article, appearing very recently, from a daily paper which will explain itself.

Milwaukee, like every other large city has its share of autocratic employers who insist that the only organization permissible under one constitution is their own.

Such a stand was the direct cause of the entire force of the Cudahy Packing Co. to peacefully leave their work.

As in other large labor disputes that are peaceful, and labor standing solid with a chance to win their rights, armed guards were brought in to protect the plant, and to cause trouble so as to arouse the public against the workers.

But thanks to our sheriff and his force who are playing square, they didn't get very far with their rough stuff.

The Steel Workers in this district are holding firm in spite of the false rumors in the press to the contrary.

We did have trouble with a local store but fortunately Brother H. H. Broach happened along just at that time and rendered us a great service by adjusting the differences on the job beyond our expectations.

Before he left he gave us a talk that put a 100 per cent push in our members, and you can bet we will slide safely over the top to the 500 mark by New Years.

Fraternally,

M. E. Custin. Sec.

L. U. NO. 516, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Editor:

Just a few lines to let our brothers know that we are still living and getting along nicely. It has been some time since Local 516 has been heard from in the Journal. Things are pretty quiet here in Providence and not much going on.

At our meeting of October 10th, Brother Frank Turrell was elected President for the remainder of the year, succeeding our worthy President, E. E. Elmer who was always on the job. President Turrell is one of our charter members and past president and a good worker for our local.

After our regular meeting of October 24th, we held a Smoker, which was very successful. Some of our Brothers of No. 258 were present and they seemed to enjoy themselves very much. There was a large attendance present and with a good line of talent, the time soon slipped by, bringing on the refreshments with enough for everybody. I might add that there were two kinds of soda served, soda and Soda.

I hope that the Press Secretary of L. U. 258 will take notice of this letter and stop digging at L. U. No. 516. (No hard feelings Fred).

Fraternally yours,

J. P. Fontes, Press Secy.
Local Union No. 516.

L. U. NO. 585, EL PASO, TEXAS.

Editor:

As it is time for another letter, I will endeavor to get one out.

Immediately after September 1st, I was sent out of town and was unable to get a letter in the Worker regarding the Labor Day events in El Paso, and as this will not appear until November it would seem out of place then. However, we had a remarkable day with a parade in the morning. Picnic in the afternoon with free lemonade, and a ball at night. The ball was a remarkable success, as you can judge when I say they cleared approximately $850.00. Liberty Hall was crowded to the doors. The success was due to the efforts of the ball committee of three. They in turn appointed committees to act under them and was not subjected to usual interference from others.

We were granted fifty cents per day increase on September 1, and I hear the Light Company will pay the same. After a discussion lasting an hour they agreed (The Telephone Co.) to the fifty cents increase. Since then we have obligated 12 of the boys from the test board, main frame and installer. The prospects are good for the others with the exceptions of a couple of men inside. Perhaps we are better without them. In the September issue of the Worker I stated that 769 and 585 had consolidated, and now I must advise that they have decided to withdraw and take out another charter under the same number however. It seems that unforeseen circumstances have arisen that makes it necessary for them to withdraw, and if they must we wish them luck. They are a fine bunch of men.

We are in receipt of a letter from Dallas, Texas, asking for a vote on the Division of the International. The vote was taken and showed that 585 was unanimously opposed to the division.

I can't see how anyone with the interest of the organization in mind, could suggest such a move. The plan would probably work in the larger cities, but if that condition should arise there would be thousands of brothers on both sides that would be unable to have a local. We know that there are small towns that can hardly keep a mixed local going, and if we were divided, both sides would lose.

I know Brothers Sherwood and Cathey and I positively don't believe any corporation has or ever will influence them in the matter. I believe this is enough for one time so will close.

Fraternally,

C. W. Mangam.
P. S. 585.

P. S.—Let's not tear down, what we have built but keep adding to it.

L. U. NO. 596, CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Editor:

Just a note from 596 to the Worker. Some time ago the plumbers thought they could play base ball, so they came around to our local one evening and challenged the Electricians. Committees were appointed to make arrangements for the game. It was decided to make a basket picnic out of it and take a day off and have a big time in general with ice cream and lemonade for refreshments. Well the plumbers discovered that the rough neck electricians could do more than string wire. The score went so high we almost lost count. We batted clear around three times in one inning. Almost every plumber on the job tried their hand at pitching.

Well our work is going on in pretty good style here now, boys are all working, and there is room for our boys who have been in the service. We have things tightened up in pretty good shape as far as inside work is concerned, with the exception of violation of jurisdiction by Local Union 756, Fairmont. A number of times they have come into our territory and done work without the consent of 596. They have not received as high scale of wages as we have here, so their shops can bid work cheaper than can be done here. I believe 596 should take some definite action and protect our home shops.

The coal strike is in full swing here. Do not know of a single mine working non-union in this section and everything is as quiet as it could possibly be. We have one mill here that came out and organized afterward and now some of the men are going back to work and when they pass a man whom they know belongs to an organization they look like sheep killing dogs.

L. U. NO. 650, FULTON, KY.

Editor:

Please excuse us for putting in so soon but we are 95 per cent card men. All men are working. Myself and entire crew were fired because we organized here, but we are all proud we were canned for the good cause. Will try to do beter next time.

E. H. Jones, President.

454 Lake Street.

L. U. NO. 658, LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS.

Editor:

Local Union No. 658 is having trouble getting members enough to do the work now on hand in Little Rock, and vicinity. All members are working and we still need more. There is no boom or rush here, but we have had more work during the summer than we have ever had before, and prospects are good for work to continue plentiful for some time, and if any Brother cares to blow this way, he will find a job waiting for him, unless he waits too long to get here. We have no particular inducement to offer, as the wages here are only $7.00 for an 8 hour day with a 44 hour week, but we do the best we can to treat all who come this way as a Brother should be treated.

We are surprised that we do not see some ravings from No. 142 in the October Journal. We hope he will soon come to life again, and will be in better condition than in the past, for judging from the noise he has been making he has been a great sufferer.

A. W. Wright,
Press Secretary.

L. U. NO. 794, CHICAGO, ILL.

Editor:

As the duties of the Press Secretary calls for the placing of his local in the lime-light, I will make attempt to live up to the duties.

Local 794 is well organized and going strong with the assistance of Business Agent Billy Meehan.

We held a meeting last night and the attendance was enough to gladden the hearts of our regular stand-bys. Meehan gave us a talk on the National Agreement and corrections that have been made and some of his work on the road. Brother Meehan covers a large territory and he is to be congratulated on his good work.

Brother Hoppe and his gang of stump jumpers have been in Chicago for several weeks and have hopes of staying awhile longer.

Brother J. Davis chieftain of Hoppe's gang was leading a small army last night to attend our meeting—Lead them again Jay.

We had our first experience as a trial board and the outcome was a lesson to all of us, that will never be forgotten. Let us hope the occasion never rises where we have to elect another trial board.

The Recording Secretary with the assistance of myself will try in the near future to get all the news of the local to all of our brothers on the road.

According to one of our local papers the I. C. R. R. will electrify soon. So get out the hooks you stump jumpers as the work will soon be on the pan.

Trusting that this reaches you in time for the November publication and wishing you and the other locals the best of success, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

Tom Morgan, Press Secy.

L. U. NO. 817, NEW YORK.

Editor:

The period of unrest continues and strikes are more numerous. Every day brings news of more dissatisfaction in the ranks of labor. Every day growls from the so-called Bolsheviks are heard and plots against our government unearthed. All this keeps the mind of the workingman in a ferment and peace-on-earth, good-will-to-men appears to be a dead issue, a thing of the past. He is no longer able to go to his home and with a feeling of peace and contentment put on his slippers, fill up his pipe and bury himself in his newspaper. He knows that which he reads is not the truth about his fellow-man. In all organs of the press are condemnations of the actions of his co-workers. He never reads one word of consolation for the unfortunates who have been compelled to strike to better their conditions which in some cases have become unbearable; nor does he read of any of the representatives of the states of our Union elected by him passing any laws that are really and truly drawn up with any beneficial clauses for him and him alone. But, he does read of the grasping and conniving politician who has succeeded in having a bill passed that protects the private interests which he represents, proving himself to be a traitor to his country, and not a faithful servant as he has pledged himself to be; and he has read of the dirtiest, meanest piece of political work that was ever perpetrated in the Halls of Congress, that of overiding President Wilson's veto of the Prohibition Enforcement Law. Never before was a vetoed bill voted on without first laying it on the table for at least twenty-four hours, nor has anything caused our dear representatives to act with such haste, dropping everything else as they would a hot poker, and responding to the snap of the whip wielded by the Anti-Saloon League, who had the day lights scared out of our conscientious representatives by their blackmailing methods, threatening them with political defeat if they did not vote the way they so ordered. Taking orders from a body of dried up old fossils whose one object in life appears to be to prohibit anything that brings joy or pleasure to the lives of us all is to be looked at with shame and disgrace by those who take such orders and execute them. They not only prohibit wines and beer, but everything under the sun which might possibly bring a little ease and comfort to one whose mind is run down by hard work, such as the smoke of a cigar or cigarette, the drink of a cup of tea or coffee. The question now before our minds is what are they going to prohibit next, and are we going to stand by submissively and allow them to continue with their under handed methods, or are we going to take a hand in these matters ourselves and demand that we be allowed to have a voice in such questions as to whether we should live in a dry, arid waste or a wet, fertile region.

It is to be regretted that the Industrial Conference brought about by President Wilson should have terminated the way it did. So much was looked for from this conference, and so much could have been accomplished had it not been for the stubbornness displayed by the employer group and their downright refusal to deal with such questions as the arbitration of the Steel Strike. It was just another case of Capital against Labor, one of the main reasons for the Industrial Conference which was to bring Capital and Labor in closer harmony, and to eliminate any stumbling blocks in the progress of both. Let us hope there will soon be a peaceful solution for all these matters and that troublesome times shall cease to exist, carrying out our President's wishes for which he has striven to the utmost.

With the necessary adjustments, the National Agreement between the Railroad Administration and the Railway Employees Department has rounded out in true form and if lived up to, will be of great benefit to those concerned therein. Of course, some exceptions must be made where a complete adherence to a rule would be found wholly impractical. But, these exceptions must be kept at a minimum, and taking the agreement in the whole, every endeavor must be made to conform to its rulings. That was the object in drawing it up, and that must be the final outcome in upholding it.

Local Union 817 is going along in good shape, still carrying on its good work of upholding the banner of righteousness, ready to enforce the laws of organization and rights for the workman. Never shall it be said that 817 failed in its purpose to obtain for their boys that of which they are deserving. No grievance is too small but what it will be carried to the utmost. Their fighting spirit shall never diminish, nor shall they be turned from the true path on which they have set out. Full steam ahead, and let no obstacles bar their way, for no matter how insurmountable the barriers may be, 817 will scale the heights to victory.

With best wishes for the continued success and prosperity of the Brotherhood, I am,

Fraternally yours,

C. H. De Santo, P. S.

L. U. NO. 823, NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Editor:

Local No. 1 of Cumberland, Tel. & Tel. Employees was installed, with very poor male attendance and some of the female employees were there. Well they are the timid ones. Also held election of officers but of course only the intelligent ones from the office were elected. Well there are a few sore heads from the plant department, but they have been told to keep quiet and they obeyed the order. They have dispersed with the dancing and entertainment because it takes up to much time and it costs money for those things and they realize it is a poor investment and it seems if the cause is coming home.

for water as they did not get the plum as per promise and a few of them were heard to remark that they were going to come back in the local where they belong. We have taken about 14 new members and are going after the rest of them and believe me we have some hustles in the field. The Company put our worthy president in charge of the line order department and the boys are showing up some good work, but one of the line order department and the boys are showing up some good work, but one of the old moss back skates got jealous and said they give the union men the good jobs and the ones that stuck during the strike don't get anything. Well you old fool that is all you deserve, because you have not got the sense to hold the job. This old skate made a skate out of his 17 year old nephew and all the floaters that hit this way refuse to work for him. We had silk hat Harry with us for a few days and was to go to work for J. Judson, but when he heard he was a skate he told him he did not work under skates and left.

Will close from the same animule.

P. S.—We have no press secretary. So please let us hear from some of the other Brothers in Local 823. Start the ball rolling.

L. U. NO. 880, PITTSBURG, PA.

Editor:

Well here we are with our few lines from Local No. 880 as usual and we hope that the few words said in regards to these two birds, Wm. Holt, Card No. 454408 and Eddie Braun, Card No. 454401 will have the same effect as if volumes were whole. They are scabs of the first class, and when they wake up, which they are bound to do some day, they will find the bars have been put up around them. Local No. 880 is better off without such upon the books, in fact we were glad to get rid of them when we did. Everything just happens for the best. The Local was called upon to pay its last respect to Brother David Davis who passed away Wednesday, October 22 of pneumonia. Bro. Davis was a true, loyal, hard working member at all times. Well we are still on the battle field, way up in the front line trenches in this battle with the Steel Mills and take it from me that they are not making the amount of steel they claim they are. If they are what are they doing with it. The railroads are not handling much. They are making a h— of a lot of smoke and noise with a few niggers and scabs. We have had just a few show the yellow, and got the hot end when they returned to work. For each and every one who has scabbed we are getting one good union man for and then some. We are moving along real nice, had 35 take the obligation last meeting night and have 100 notices to send out for the next meeting. We had a call paid us by Brother Long, who gave a good talk. Brother Bennett being with us also. They made things hum. Got right down to hard pan, telling the boys to stick for the soup and nuts. I will close for this time hoping to see the scabs lose their little jobs before long.

L. U. NO. 895, OAKLAND, CAL.

Editor:

In accordance with my official position as Press Secretary of Railroad Local Union No. 895. I. B. E. W., I respectfully submit the following article of news of happenings in this jurisdiction which I would be pleased to have you print in your paper "The Electrical Worker."

Railroad Local No. 895 for the third quarter ending September 30th, has taken in thirty new members (men working for the Railroads) through applications; received nine traveling cards; granted seven traveling and three withdrawal cards.

At our last meeting General Organizer Thomas Robbins addressed the Union on the "National Agreement".

M. Matthews has resigned the Executive Board Chairmanship and C. Cammack was elected to fill the place.

C. W. Russel tendered his resignation as Treasurer and the "Fighting Operator", from West Oakland. John O'Leary, was elected to fill his place. O'Leary watches the Treasury and the Recording Secretary Breck, Jr., like a true Irish terrier.

Brother Edw. Gelston has resigned his former office as Worthy Vice President and Robert (Whitey) Martin now occupies the chair. You can leave it to our Vice President to make things lively.

The Local has joined the "Pumb Plan League" and has elected James A. Himmel, Robert Whittington, and H. Higgins to see to it that the Electrical Workers get the share of credit to which they are entitled.

The "System Federation of Electrical Workers" has increased the per capita tax to fifty cents per member per month. There has been considerable comment on this but the local desires to give the young "Labor Leader" from the Southern City another chance. When the System President comes to Oakland he will always find a warm welcome for him and a good friend and assistant for his cause in our worthy president, Brother James A. Himmel, as long as he can show that he can "deliver the goods" and get conditions for our members.

Well, the National Convention is over and as yet we have heard nothing. Here's hoping that it was a worth-while Convention.

With reference to the "New National Agreement", this Agreement does not meet the approval of our Local. We would like to see comment from other locals, especially Railroad Locals, on this Agreement. According to our Official Journal there are 125 Railroad Locals in the Brotherhood. Why not see that the Press Secretaries get busy and let us know what you think about this agreement.

I wish to hereby serve notice on all Railroad Locals that it might be very interesting to them to keep an eye on Local 895 for this Local is in "on the job" and we may have something to offer our "Railroad Locals" relative to this so-called National Agreement. So watch your Journal.

Well Brothers, I trust that the Locals will see that the Press Secretaries get busy and shoot us some comment in the Worker. "G. Walter Packard is off again" is the latest report.

Fraternally yours,

M. R. Winsatt,
Press Secretary.

Editor:

It's no more than right that we should inquire as to your good health, in your hours of confinement. I want to realize that your health is impaired daily by offering your services to the Brotherhood and make a nervous wreck of one's self trying to decipher the heterogeneous hyroglyphics, that come to you by are inefficient Press Secretary.

Our new agreement has been written and applied to each and every contractor. To-day the last and only remaining signature has been signed to the document called the agreement. The $1.25 per hour is an actuality and we are now pushing "Knobs and Tubes" for this stated amount. Everything is working very keen. We have a strong desire to keep it that way. We have a goal and that is 100 per cent pure we are clamoring for.

We call out to all fellow workers that the 90 day clause is now on and will expire about January. Don't blame me, remember, I'm just a weakling, a mere Press Secretary.

You "Tricity" men hear all ye this day. A rejuvenation took place Sunday, Nov. 2nd, here in town. Mr. Jack Keyes appeared on the scene and a party ensued for three "Musketeers".

Hale Cullan and Keyes, the big chief. Dr. Keyes the medicine man called out to the stone baby on "Fletcher's" home, Fifth Ave., N. Y. to bring on the Castoria. Nothing else could be found. As Famous Jack the Medicine Man swung aboard the train bound for the East, back to Eatsland, he cried out with all his might, "Back in Sixty Seven."

Brother Ashton of Pittsburgh, I lost your letter, but I am attempting to get a letter to you. Sorry of this old boy, I will try to be prompt and diligent.

Fraternally,

J. P. Callan, Press Secy.

L. U. NO. 62A, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

Editor:

I am sending you a list of the contributions received to date, from Local Unions of the Brotherhood, to, the strike fund of Local 62a of Jacksonville.

I wish to state while I am on the floor, that we are still out here and have no intention of going back until we have come to terms with the Southern Bell that are satisfactory to us. We have been out since the 19th day of May, and so far have been able to hold our forces intact, without a desertion.

We have a local composed of members who are scrappers and who are willing, and have made the sacrifices that we must all make at times "for the good of the union". There is one sacrifice that we have refused to make and that is to sacrifice the backbone of our local union for the sake of getting a part of the girls back on the job.

We have loyal supporters among the organized men and women of Jacksonville and some who have been on the job from the start, even at a great personal sacrifice to themselves and are still going the limit for us in this fight.

We feel that with the united effort of them and of the other members of the Brotherhood, that we will be successful in our effort to put our members back in the exchange in a body and not one at a time as the Company, would have us do. As some of you might be in the dark as to our reason for being out I am going to state in as few words as possible, why we came out.

After we had presented a proposed agreement to the Company asking for certain conditions, and the Company had told us flatly, that they would not agree to anything contained in the agreement, the Company called on the employees, or rather called the employees into the office one or two at a time and demanded to know what they would do in case a strike was called. This even before a strike had even been mentioned by anyone, and if the employee was a member of the union, they were informed that if they intended to stick for the organization that their services would not be required after 15 days. A protest was sent to the officials of the Post Office Department, claiming discrimination by the officials of the Telephone Company against Union employees, and the Department sent the reply back that they had, after making an investigation, found no evidence of discrimination, and that the employees in question had resigned.

If there was ever a Post Office Representative here to make any investigation, we never heard of it, nor were we asked to submit any evidence to substantiate our claims.

On May the 19th, which was the end of the 15 days notice given to the majority of the girls of the 38 who were given their notice, the 38 came off the job and along with them, came about 65 more who believed that the girls who had made the conditions under which they were working, had been done a very grave injustice. Since that time we have been out putting up a fight for our rights and will continue to do so until our case has been won. In conclusion I wish to thank each and every Local and every member of the Brotherhood who has given their support and solicit the moral and financial support of every member until we are able to go back with a clean victory to our credit.

Fraternally yours,

Cora Mosely, Pres.

BRITISH TRADE UNION MOVEMENT DEVELOPS AMAZINGLY.

(Exclusive Correspondence of "Electrical Workers' Journal.")

It would be perhaps too much to say that the movement of labor in this country is becoming menacing to interests that have hitherto regarded themselves as stoutly entrenched in privilege and profit. At the same time it is quite clear that every month that goes by now exhibits a distinct step forward in the development of the labor movement and in trade union organization and strength. Things happen now in six weeks that apparently before the war would have taken six years, if not more. So immense, in fact, is the activity and so far-reaching its ratifications that even summarizing things is difficult within reasonable space.

Still, in reviewing recent affairs and giving a clue as to what is happening, a start might be made by referring to the annual Trade Union Congress, which was held at Glasgow this year at the beginning of September. This was the biggest and most comprehensive convention of trade unionists ever held in this or any other country. The total number of delegates was 850, representing 5,265,426 trade unionists in full standing. This membership was double the highest pre-war membership. The increase has been occasioned not only by the immense advance in many unions' membership but also by the affiliation of new unions. There was even a request this time for affiliation from the National Union of Church Organ Blowers, which statement got the first laugh at the Congress.

The Electrical Trades Union was strongly represented by six delegates—J. Rowan, the general secretary of the union, J. W. Ball, J. Kinniburgh, W. M. Citrine, C. H. Stavenhagen and W. J. Webb, the last mentioned being the London secretary. These delegates supported all the advanced movements at the convention and their own list of resolutions brought forward was a comprehensive and up-to-date one.

Before the congress there came a very long list of resolutions, many of which were hardy annuals. This time, however, although many of them were passed en bloc it was universally recognized that business was meant and the newspapers of the country, although endeavoring of course to minimize the importance of the Trade Union movement, were compelled to recognize this new seriousness.

"Direct action" came up for special discussion, but in the end a straight vote was not taken upon this question of using the industrial strike for political and national matters not of a strictly industrial character. It was recognized—and certain votes showed it—that the advocates of direct action greatly outnumbered those who were in favor of keeping the two sides of the labor movement separate and leaving the trade unions to conduct industrial movements and the Labor Party to conduct political ones. Of this matter, however, more is being heard and a great deal more will be heard.

Perhaps the most important immediate straight decision of the congress was on the question of the nationalization of coal mines. The miners, who had 700,000 members or more represented at the congress, were solid on this question, and the Electrical Trades Union and all the other unions at the congress, with only one important exception, sided with them. As a result a resolution arranging that a deputation from the congress should wait upon the Government to ask for an immediate measure of coal mines nationalization was adopted by 4,478,000 votes to 77,000. The minority was almost entirely composed of the followers of J. Havelock Wilson, who himself a staunch trade union worker of many years' standing is personally a strong opponent of any kind of nationalization.

This resolution was further strengthened by additions which arranged that in the event of the Government refusing to agree to the request of the above-mentioned deputation a further special extraordinary Trade Union Convention should be called at which measures should be devised to "compel" the Government to carry out the nationalization of the coal mines. This addition was made specially in view of the fact that the Government's own commission appointed to look into the question earlier in the year had decided by a majority report in favor of coal mines nationalization. The government afterwards turned down its own commission's recommendation.

Early in October this deputation from the Trades Union Congress interviewed Lloyd George and the other chief members of the Government, but failed to get any satisfaction whatever. The Government appears to be rather in a mess over this question, by the way, because whilst refusing to grant the miners' request it has also flung overboard its own alternative scheme which was rapidly devised to sidetrack the miners. All that the Government now seems to be willing to do is to buy out the coal royalty owners (these are the people who make a charge per ton on all the coal mined under their property—about 12 cents per ton being the average royalty) and to evolve a scheme whereby coal miners will have some little modified share in the industrial management of the mines.

The miners are determined to go on with their movement. They have cut the country up into districts for propaganda purposes and have their best speakers out now building up public opinion generally in favor of coal mines nationalization. Furthermore, a special convention of trade unions is to be called to provide a means of compelling the Government.

What the upshot of this will be is not clear at the moment, but it looks as though the Government, rather than give way, would dissolve Parliament and go to the country in a new General Election on the question for or against coal mines nationalization. Hence the miners' public propaganda.

In the meantime, between the holding of the annual Trade Union Congress in September and this meeting with the Government there took place in this country the national railway strike which also was a record in its way. More than half a million railwaymen—the total membership of the two unions in the industry, namely, the National Union of Railwaymen and the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen—ceased work at midnight on September 26th and did not resume fully until October 7th, although the strike was called off after a final meeting with the Government on Sunday afternoon, October 5th.

This strike was a most remarkable example of solid trade union action. If there were any blacklegs they were infinitesimal in number. For a day or two not a train moved in the whole country. Then a few were got going by means of volunteer help composed mainly of titled and middle class people who proclaimed in almost every case, however, that they were not working against the interests of the railwaymen but to ensure the safety of the nation. The national food supplies were well looked after, the Government having already at its disposal a scheme for the utilization of nation-wide motor wagon transport on the roads.

The general newspaper press in this action and denounced the railwaymen and country betrayed an absolute disregard of all the facts and decencies of the situation their leaders up hill and down dale. J. H. Thomas, the secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, who is a man who hates strikes, was denounced as an anarchist, and a bolshevist but in the end even the public generally began to laugh at these aspersions. The Government and the railwaymen both declared their determination not to give way, but the ultimate settlement of the strike was practically a complete win for the railwaymen.

For one thing, railwaymen's wages in this country, now expanded by all sorts of war bonuses, were to come up for alteration, which meant probable reduction, next March. The period now is moved solidly a further six months to next September, before which date no change can take place. Secondly, the Government have agreed to consider the questions of standardized wages, which otherwise is the railwaymen's claim that every man in the railway service doing similar work shall have the same minimum wage. At present, for example, a porter on one railway company is getting lower wages than a porter upon another railway, despite the fact that he is doing the same work and is subject to the same higher costs of living. Several more points were settled and in return the railwaymen agreed to go back to work and not to raise any question of certain of the members blacklegging during the strike. That last was apparently the only Government gain.

The railway strike has shown the Government that on the trigger the whole of the great national union membership would walk out and stay out. It is believed that the Government to a certain extent invited this last strike in order to see whether the great figures of modern British trade unionism really meant the strength they looked. The Government has now found that this is so.

Talking of the railwaymen reminds me that an award has just been issued by the arbitration enquiry into the claims of the Electrical Trades Union that the same holiday conditions already agreed to for workers in the general electricity undertakings of the London district should be applied to the men employed in the electricity departments of the railway companies operating in the London area. At the hearing it was contended by the railway companies that the men concerned formed part of the general body of railway workmen, and that their holiday conditions should be regulated by those governing the general body. The Court decided that the claim had not been established. The Electrical Trades Union now has this matter in hand for further treatment.

Moving from the great national questions to one of a more local nature, I might refer before this article closes to a case where a member of the Electrical Trades Union is charging the union with having unjustly expelled him. The matter has gone right through to the High Court of Justice and has been adjudicated upon by Justice Lawrence, one of our leading judges. He declares that this man, Ernest Henry Keeley, a member of the Electrical Trades Union, was not expelled properly in accordance with any special rule of the union, and therefore he must be retained as a member of the union.

The reason given by the Union for the expulsion was that Keeley as foreman of his firm, allowed a fitter named Grint, who is not a member of the Union, to work on board a warship in the Port of London. In 1915 a rule of the Union was made that "No man be allowed to work aboard ship in the port of London unless he has held a Union ticket for at least three months." Keeley declares he was misled by the man, who said he was a member of the Union although he had not got a professional ticket. Cox, the shop steward on the job, acting for the Union, was not satisfied and Grint was dismissed from the job and afterwards Keeley was dismissed from the Union for having employed him.

The Union is very keen upon this point as it declares that only in this way can work proceed without friction. Keeley had been given a hearing before the branch and district committees but the judge in deciding as above went by the strict literal reading of the Union's rules and found that Keeley had had no hearing at all by any tribunal which, according to the rules, had power to expel him. More will of course be heard of this case as it is regarded as vital by the Union.

N. Y. C. R. R.—ELECTRIC POWER STATION SWITCHBOARD OPERATORS.

N. Y. C. R. R. Decision No. 11—August 15, 1919.

Question—Readjustment of rates of pay.

Statement of facts—Power for the electric operation of trains on the railroad is furnished from two power stations and distributed through nine substations. The position of power station switchboard operator is more important than that of sub-station switchboard operator in that the operator has control of a greater amount of power. Also, conditions are likely to arise in a power station requiring greater ability than are likely to occur in a substation. The power station switchboard operators and substation switchboard operators are paid the first-class electrical workers' rate of 68 cents per hour. January 1st, 1918, prior to the application of General Order No. 27, the power station switchboard operators were paid differentials ranging from 4 cents to 9½ cents per hour above the rates paid substation switchboard operators.

Employees' Contention—It is the contention of the employees that the power station switchboard operators should receive 73 cents per hour, being men exceptionally skilled in their work and also because they had before the application of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 received a higher rate of pay than substation switchboard operators.

Railroad's Contention—The management agrees in part with the contention of the employees, but believes that a differential of $2\frac{1}{2}$ cents per hour would be sufficient. This as provided in Addenda No. 2 to Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 for certain classes of employees who have heretofore received a rate in excess of the established minimum rate.

Decision—No excess rates are provided for in Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, except as shown in Sections 1, 2 and 7 of Addendum No. 2 to Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27.

The employees in question not coming within the above, are therefore not entitled to an excess rate. They shall be paid as per the provisions of Section 1, Article II, Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27.

G. N. R. R.—ELECTRICAL WORKERS. G. N. R. R. Decision No. 1—June 9, 1919.

Question—How shall the following men, employed in the general office building, coming under the jurisdiction of the Chief Engineer's Department, be classified and paid?

Statement of Facts—The electrical force consists of one chief electrical engineer, three substation motor attendants, one first-class electrician and one second-class electrician. Two thousand and three hundred volts, alternating current, is received from the outside at the transformers located in the subbasement, and is stepped down to 250 volts on the switchboard, and that voltage is carried in the motors. In addition, we have employed around the building a first-class electrician, who maintains the electrical equipment throughout the building and has supervision over extra men employed from time to time in making extensive repairs or installations.

Employees' Position—Employees contend that these men, employed in the general office building, performing the work as outlined above, should be classified in accordance with Sections 5 and 5-A, Article I, Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, and compensated in accordance with Supplement No. 4, its addendums, amendments and interpretations.

Railroad's Position—The company contends that prior to the issuance of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, these men were paid a monthly rate and have never been under the jurisdiction of the mechanical or car department, and have always been under the jurisdiction of the Chief Engineer's Department, and, therefore, should be classified and paid in accordance with the provisions of Supplement No. 8 to General Order No. 27.

Decision—The employees in question will be classified in accordance with Sections 5 and 5-A, Article I, of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 and paid under Article 2, Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27.

N. Y. C. R. R.—SUB-STATION AND GENERATOR ATTENDANTS.

N. Y. C. R. R. Decision No. 14—
August 15, 1919.

Question—Proper classification.

Employees' contention—Employees now classed as sub-station helpers are not properly classified and should be classified as per Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, Article I, Section 5. The men in contention on September 1, 1906, to October 11, 1918, were known as dynamo men. On October 11, 1918, Mr. Whitney, superintendent of sub-stations, issued an order changing the title of dynamo men to operator's helpers. Their duties are: starting, stopping, cleaning, oiling and maintaining of rotaries and their equivalent and making all necessary emergency and minor repairs on same, as well as relieving and assisting the switchboard operator in his duties. The voltage in all these stations is 11,000 volts AC and is stepped down to various voltages, down to as low as 190 AC and converted to 250 and 660 volts DC.

These men should have been classed as first-class electrical workers and paid 68 cents an hour, the same to be retroactive to January 1, 1918, as they are doing the general work of substation and generator attendants, and are held responsible for the performance of the rotaries and equipments in their charge, as well, while relieving or assisting the switchboard operator, they do all his duties and assume all his responsibilities for the proper operation of the switchboard.

Railroad's contention—On January 1, 1917, prior to the application of General Order No. 27, sub-station operators received rates ranging from $38\frac{1}{2}$ cents to 45 cents and the helpers or dynamo men, $34\frac{1}{2}$ cents. Under Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 the sub-station operators have been paid first-class electrical workers' rate of 68 cents as provided in Article I, Section 5, and Article II, Section 1. The operators' helper has been paid a helper's rate of $47\frac{1}{2}$ cents, this being 13 cents above the rate paid January 1st, as provided in Article I, Section 5-C, and Article III, Section 2, "Helpers in the basic trades herein specified will be paid 45 cents per hour," also Amendment No. 1 to Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, "to this basic rate and all hourly rates of 32 cents per hour and above, in effect as of January 1, 1918, add 13 cents per hour."

It is the position of the management that the rates for the position in question are as prescribed in Section 2, Article III of Supplement No. 4, also Amendment No. 1 to Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, for the reason that their duties are such as are prescribed in Section 5-C of Article I of the Supplement No. 4, reading as follows: "Electrical worker's helpers—employees regularly assigned as helpers to assist electrical workers and apprentices, including lamp trimmers who do no mechanical work."

The classification for the position in question was changed from "dynamo man" to "sub-station operator's helper" in order to conform with Interpretation No. 1 to Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 and Addendum No. 2 thereto, which provides that "If their present payroll classification does not conform, they shall be given correct classification."

In most cases these men when hired are inexperienced, with no previous knowledge of electrical work. As they qualify and as opportunity offers, they are advanced to the position of sub-station operator.

These men are assistants to the sub-station operators and report to them, the operator being the responsible man in charge of the sub-station during his watch and the work done by the assistant is done under the direction of the charge of the sub-station during his might be left alone in the sub-station would be when the operator went to the toilet room. The operator could be called quickly if emergency made it necessary.

In regard to the sub-station operator's helper operating in case of emergency, third rail knife switches. This might occur at rare intervals and would not average once in two years for any given man.

Decision—The electrical worker helpers in question should not have been used to perform mechanics' work.

PULLMAN CAR LINES—ELECTRICAL DEPT. EMPLOYEES.

Pullman Car Lines Decision No. 8—July 29, 1919.

Question—What is the correct rate of pay for electrical workers, first-class, who were in the service of the Pullman Car Lines prior to July 25, 1918, the date of issuance of Supplement No. 4, and who were then receiving the going rate of their craft?

Employees' position—We claim these men were employed to do first-class electrical work, and paid the minimum rate of pay as was in effect at that time. These men must have been qualified men or they would not have been retained in the service. Such being the case, they should not be called upon to prove four years' experience, as their work must have proved previous experience. We, therefore, contend that these men should be paid the minimum rate of their craft, 68 cents per hour, as laid down in Article II, Section 1, Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, and covered in decision laid down in Docket SE-16, January 14, 1918.

Railroad's position—Acting in accordance with Section 1, Article II of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, we have paid to all electrical workers, first class, who have had four or more years' experience, a rate of 68 cents per hour, and this was made effective as of August 1, 1918. To those, however, who have had less than four years' experience, we have applied the graduated scale specified in Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27, Article II, Section 2. We claim that we have complied precisely with General Order No. 27 and its various supplements, addenda and interpretations in applying the graduated scale of rates above specified, in cases where electrical workers, first class, have had less than four years' experience.

Decision—Employees who were performing mechanics' work as outlined in Sections 5 or 5-A of Article I of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 and who were prior to July 25, 1918 receiving the minimum rate of the craft at point employed, will be paid as per Sections 1 or 1a of Article 2 of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27.

Those who were not receiving the minimum rate of their craft at point employed and who had not had four years' experience will be paid as per Sections 2 or 2-A of Article II of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27.

"Minimum rate" as used in this decision means the lowest rate paid at point employed, to men doing work recognized as mechanics' work in their respective class.

N. Y. C. R. R.—LINEMEN.

N. Y. C. R. R. Decision No. 13—August 15, 1919.

Question—Board deduction from pay of linemen.

Statement of facts—Prior to January 1, 1918, the railroad employed some telegraph line gang men who were paid flat daily or monthly rates and furnished their own subsistence, and other telegraph line gang men whose board was paid by the railroad, these latter men receiving about $30 a month less than was paid employees who furnished their own subsistence.

When Interpretation No. 1 of Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27 was received, these telegraph line employees were classified as electrical workers, under the provisions of Section and 5-A of Article I of Supplement No. 4, and paid the rates provided in Article No. II for electrical workers.

From the time these employees were placed under the terms of Supplement No. 4 and paid the rates specified therein on the current payrolls, the railroad made a deduction of $1 per day from each of them whose board was formerly paid by the railroad, and applied this amount against their board bill which the railroad continued to pay. In other words, the railroad is continuing to pay the board of these men, but is making a deduction from their wages, because of the fact that the differential previously existing between men who furnished their own board and men whose board was furnished by the railroad, has been eliminated by the application of Supplement No. 4.

Employees' contention — The men claim that no deduction should be made from their wages for board or meals and lodging but on the contrary, feel that they should receive an allowance of $2 per day for meals and lodging while away from home point, as per Section 5 of Article IV of Supplement No. 4, and ask that the money so far deducted from their wages for board be refunded to them.

Railroad's contention—In view of the fact that it had always been the practice to pay a lower rate to telegraph line gang men whose board was paid by the railroad, without making a deduction from the wages of the men, the management believes that the elimination of pre-existing differentials makes it unfair to treat such employees on a different basis from other employees who formerly paid their own board.

Sections 4 and 5 of Article IV to Supplement 4 provide for paying expenses of employees sent out on the road for emergency service, or temporarily required to fill vacancies, or to perform work at outside division points. Telegraph line gang men are regularly required to move from place to place in the performance of their duty, and their conditions of service are not analagous to that of shopmen. Therefore, it is the understanding of the management that the sections above referred to are not applicable to the regular work of telegraph linemen. Therefore, they are unable to find anything in Supplement No. 4 which requires them to either guarantee the board of such employees, or to allow them expenses under the conditions outlined.

Decision—Money deducted by the railroad for meals and lodging will be refunded to the employees in question.

In future if the railroad elects to furnish meals and lodgings same may be done. If not, $2 per day will be allowed employees for meals and lodgings. (See Interpretation No. 4 to Supplement No. 4 to General Order No. 27.)

AN APPEAL TO ALL SCABS.

Ponder well, ye deluded, the wrong which you do,
Your treason so foul, ye shall bitterly rue.
Stop and think of the toilers you help to enslave,
Of the shame that shall follow the scab
to his grave.
Yes, think of the future, your children and wives
Whom you blight with the cause of your renegade lives.
Oh, be traitors no longer, leave the job and the shop,
At once strike the livery of shame from your back,
Spurn the wages of shame, take them not for one day,
'Tis the slogan of Freedom calls you away.
Is it wise, do you think, to injure a friend
For the sake of a master? Will it pay in the end?
Will you help to defeat your brothers who fight
The great battles of Labor for Freedom and Right?
As they struggle to rise, will you hold them down?
Too late shall you learn that the cause is your own;
That the freedom to work, you so foolishly
crave,
Is simply the freedom to live as a slave.
Then come, join your brothers, no longer delay,
'Tis the slogan of Freedom calls you today.

Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz,
Chief Consulting Engineer of the General Electric Company, has said that,
"The world needs men who know something of electricity, of the operations and control of electrical power. It needs men more every year, its very existence depends on the electrician."—Electrical Exper- imenter, June, 1919.

What a Knowledge of Electricity Would Mean to YOU

A real job with a man's size salary—that's what it would mean. It's easy to get it if you know electricity. Electricity is the biggest force in the world today. It's one of the best paying fields a man can get into. Just see what the great Steinmetz says about electricity—"the very existence of the world depends on the electrician." That's the kind of business to be in for real money making. Get into it as quick as you can—train yourself at home—in your spare time.

The Cyclopedia of

Applied Electricity

The world's greatest electrical books will fit you to hold the biggest kind of a job. They were written by the engineers and experts that helped to make electricity what it is today. These men know what you need. They give you 50 year's of electrical experience at your finger tips. Plain, everyday language and thousands of pictures make everything as simple as A B C. Glance over the partial list of what the books contain and see our offer that gives them to you a whole week free. Mail the coupon today.
